Dear Helen,
 Study Hall was all
 we were in together and in there we sure had fun. We & you always talking and you trying to get a good look at David.
 I wish you all the happiness in the world in whatever you do. And stay as sweet as you are now.

Saw Shiley

P.S. Remember when they hid your heels
 in Study Hall.

Dear Helen:
 Will always remember you.
 How could I ever
 forget such a time.
 I wish you all the happiness
 in the world in whatever you do. And stay as sweet as you are now.

VOLUME 38

'54-'55...AT DHS

And, lo, it was September . . . sultry breezes blew open the gates of Davenport High
. . . some joyously accepted fate . . . some openly rebelled . . . some were indifferent . . . most heeded the call . . . classrooms buzzed with activity . . .
not all on the subject . . . football became the topic . . . falling leaves changed to falling snow . . . and routine rolled along . . . bright lights heralded Christmas and vacation . . . work began again in earnest . . . the year half over . . . ah, basketball and wrestling . . .
work and
tests . . . snow dripped into floods along the gutters . . . green on the lawns . . .
sun in the heavens . . . and Spring in the air . . . almost over . . . would there were more say more . . .
fishing for me chime in others . . .
but all in all . . . as the gates swing together . . .
a feeling . . . misty and warm . . .

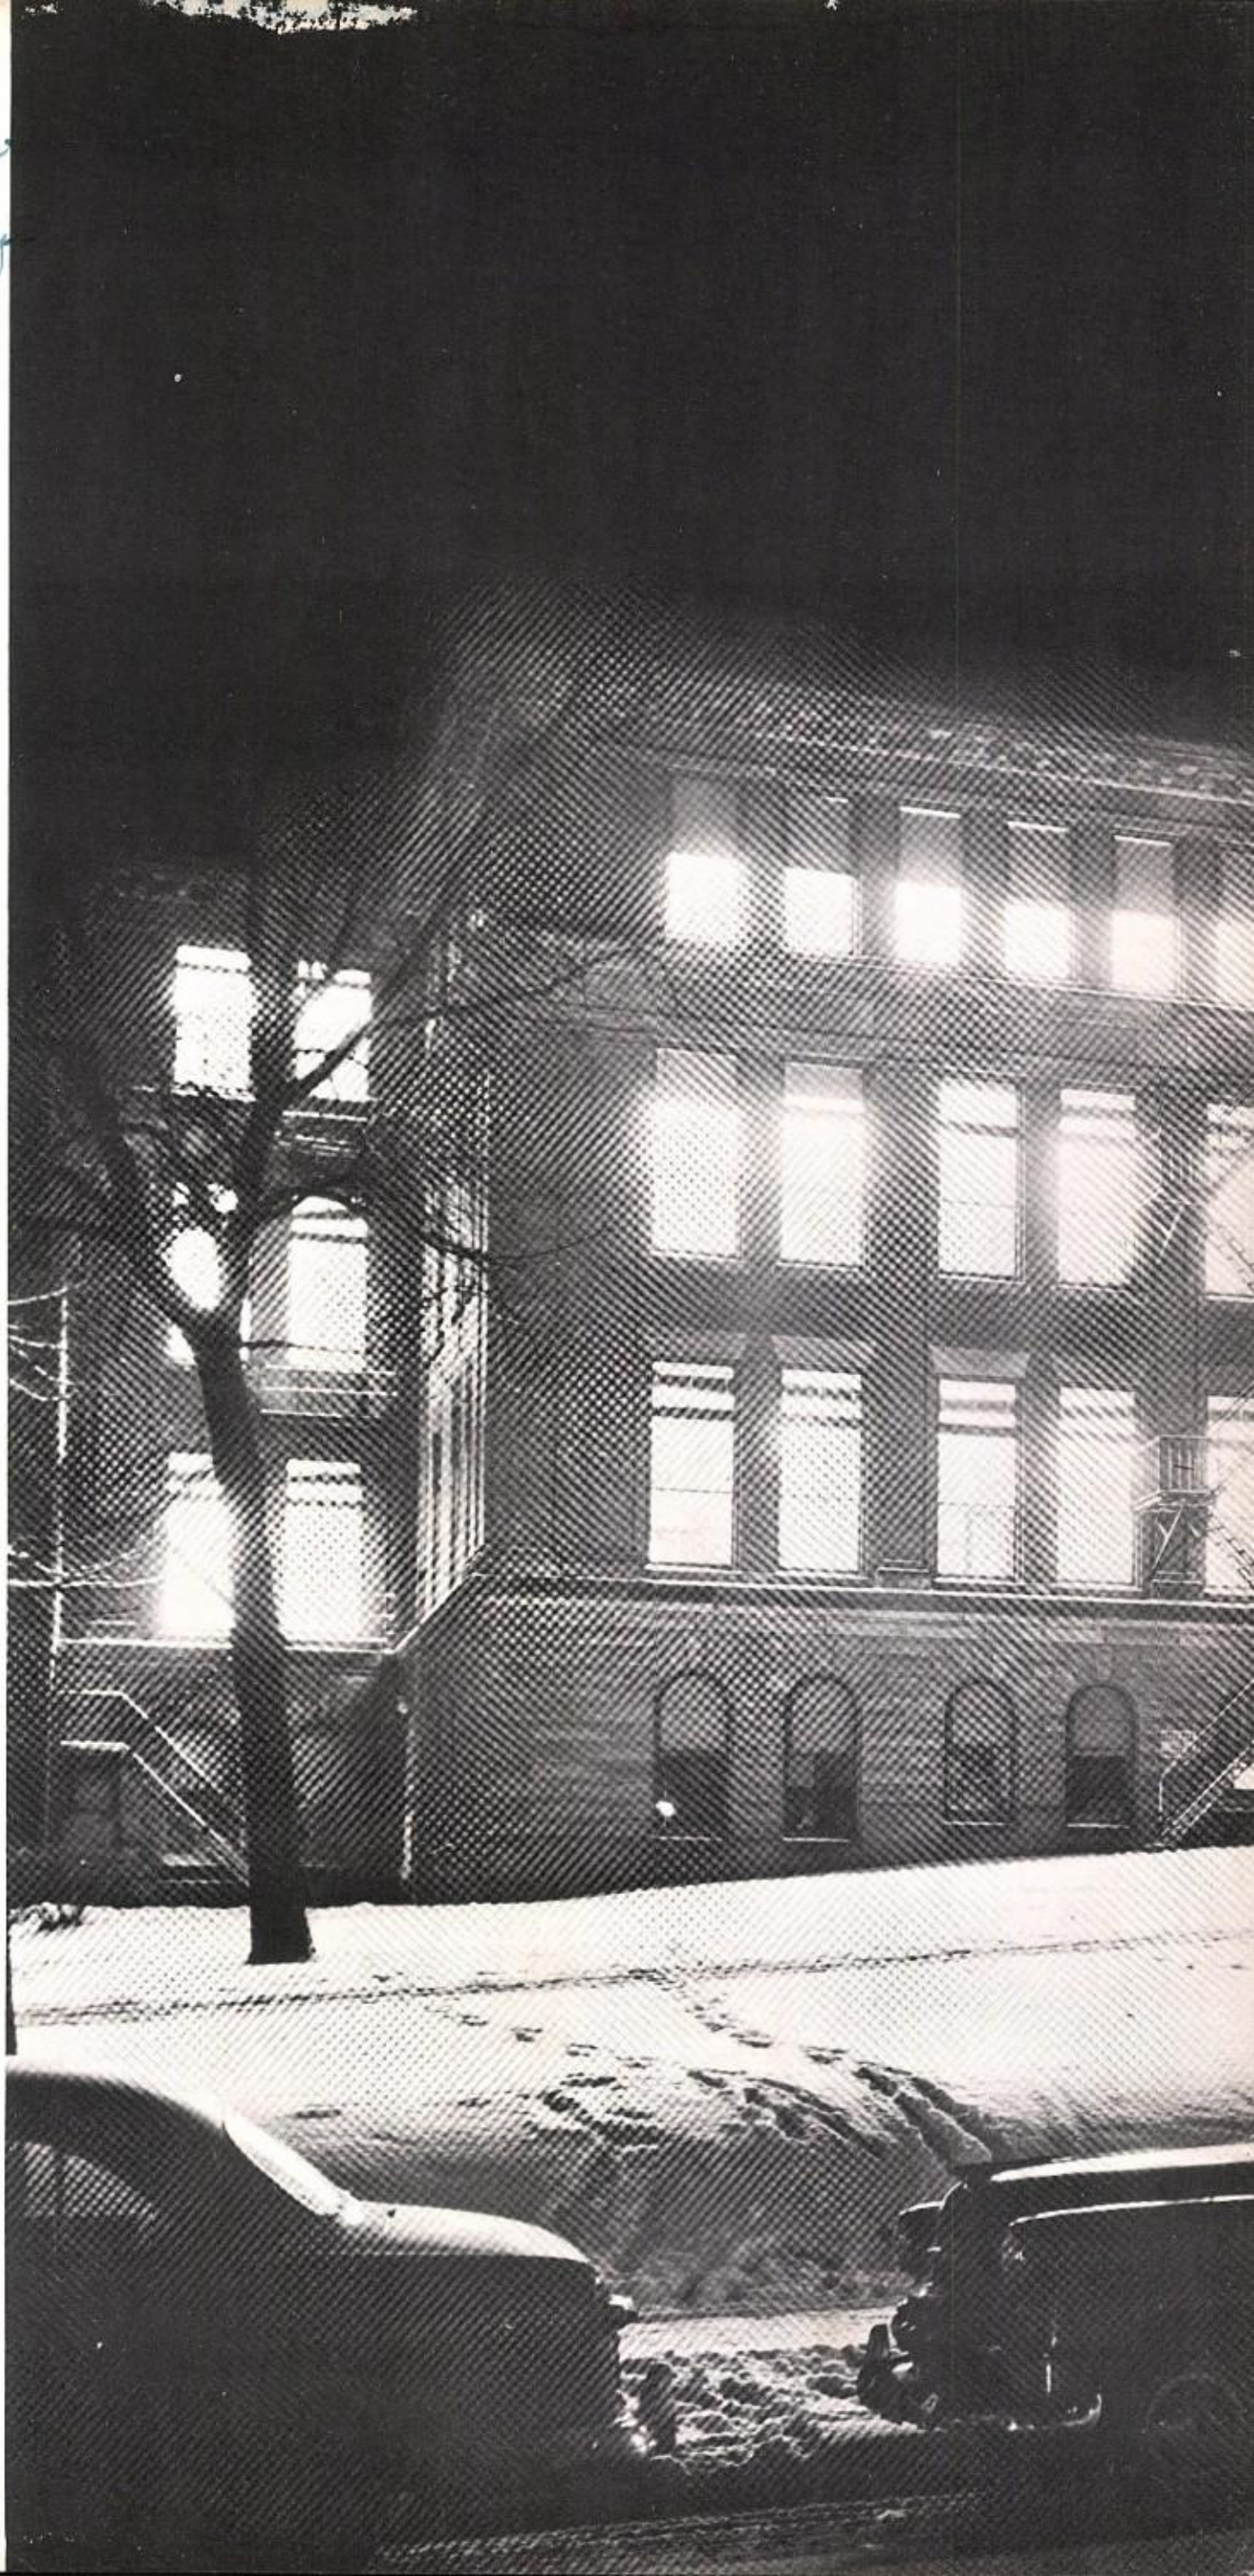

Helen,

It looks nice and cool on this page so here
I am.

I wish you the best of every thing in all your future years.

Love you

The Industrial Arts Building

Our days at DHS . . . crowded with uproarious good times and a little homework . . . we remember most of all the teachers who became our friends and counselors . . . pep auds . . . after the games . . . lunch time and food . . . the blessed bell . . . club meetings . . . rousing discussions . . . all the conveniences of the new stadium and our re-decorated main building . . . these we remember.

BEHIND THE SCENES . . . ADMINISTRATION

HAROLD J. WILLIAMS,
Superintendent of Schools

The Board of Education shown seated around the conference table are Mrs. Rhea Cornelius, Mr. Harold T. Jaeke, Superintendent; Harold J. Williams, President Richard LeBuhn, Mr. J. E. Baumgartner, Mr. John Burrows, Mr. Albert F. Block, and Mr. William W. Brubaker.

Best wishes Helen.
Keep the easy smile
Mr. Berry

ROGER BERRY,
Principal

Rose Marie Huntington and Glenda Rollins seem to have been fortunate enough to catch Principal Roger Berry in one of his free moments.

Miss Leona L. Soehren, Dean of Students

Don L. Hempstead, Assistant Principal

*Best wishes in the future.
Mary Jean Morris*

Lost anything lately? Better check with Lost and Found. Anything from brace retainers to gym suits can be claimed from the conglomeration of items found there. Dave Wardell and Jan Forbes look over some of the loot displayed by Mrs. Mary Jane Lafrenz.

Seated at her desk in the Counseling Office is Mrs. Marianne Andresen, who replaced Miss Keppy. Standing is Alberta Porter, who took over the duties of Mrs. Morris.

Happily using the facilities of the College Corner, while waiting to see Miss Soehren are college aspirants Shirley Baxter, Steve Fersch, and Donna Stewart. Here students interested in higher learning can find information and data on over 600 colleges and universities located throughout the country. This collection of yearbooks and college catalogs is one of the largest in this part of the country.

SENIORS

Parting of the ways . . . beginning of things more profound and worldly . . .
 but, now, the past year remains the greatest and best . . .
 senior auds and class elections . . .
 the Sock Hop and outrageous costumes . . . shoes checked at the door . . . Career Day, the most extensive of its kind in the country . . . then the Senior Class Play, old-style melodrama . . . plus all the regular events of the year . . .
 Senior-Junior Prom, and dancing the night away . . . picnicking and frolicing . . .
 and, finally, the reward for years of faithful work . . . the long walk across the stage, the firm hand clasp . . . the rolled scroll,
 the coveted diploma . . . congratulations . . .

Portrait by Carstensen Studio

These were the Grade-A leaders of the class of '55: Margaret Lindsay, Tom Murphy, Joan Pavel and Don Otto.

The busy day of a senior's life included the planning of all the senior activities. In the fall, approximately 560 seniors elected Don Otto, president; Tom Murphy, vice-president; Joan Pavel, secretary; and Margaret Lindsay, treasurer. The next event was the class party, the Senior Sock Hop, this year called the "Buckboard Bounce." The all-important Senior Career Day was held April 27. All seniors were first inspired by a kick-off speaker and panel discussion, followed by an afternoon of visitation to an occupational field of their own choice. Over 300 seniors assisted in the planning. The Senior Class next presented "The Great Diamond Robbery," May 6 and 7, with a cast of over 40. The never-to-be-forgotten senior assembly and picnic began to close the doors of high school. The climax was the Senior-Junior Prom on June 3, a night long to be remembered. Baccalaureate and Commencement sent the high school graduates on their own separate ways, each holding a different treasure chest of memories of DHS.

HOMECOMI

Gathering in small groups, alumni exchanged pleasant memories of their days at DHS, and everyone danced until Homecoming 1954 became an event of the past.

The spotlight was on the canvas Blue Devil's head strung between goalposts as the DHS gridders ran through its mouth onto the field.

Before the game Queen Marian was presented a bouquet of giant mums by Lee Crawford, General Homecoming Chairman, and introduced to the audience as Mr. Berry looked on.

They had good reason to be pleased! These were the candidates for 1954 Homecoming Queen.

What a beautiful car!
Nice girls, too!
Lucky Lee was the driver as they paraded through the downtown area. The girls are holding the trophies presented to them during the Homecoming aud.

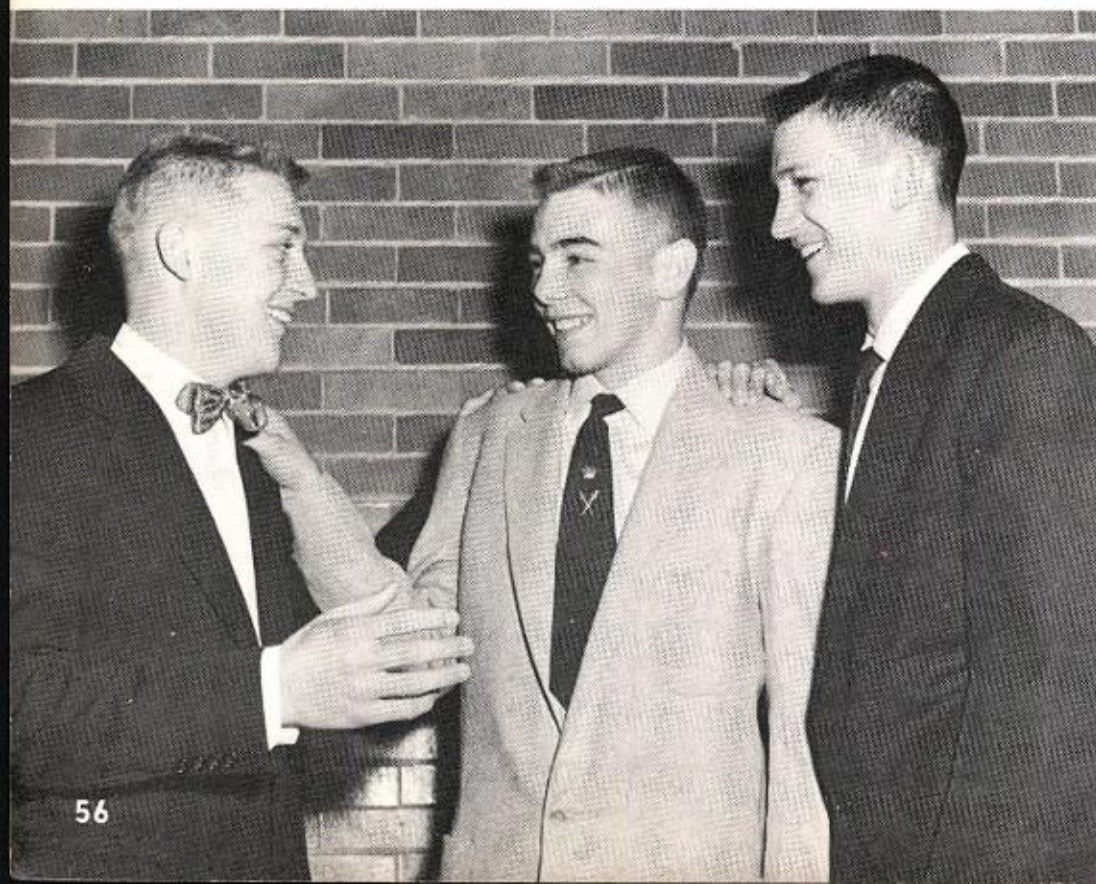

SERENADE IN BLUE--THE SPINSTERS' SPREE

Dick Kreiter, who reigned as king of the Spinsters' Spree, was "crowned" by Jo Nelson, GAA president, during a brief ceremony at the dance, "Serenade in Blue."

Shown relaxing from their "tedious duties" as attendants to the King of the Spinsters' Spree are DeWayne Rochau, Tom Murphy, and Mike Fenn.

Boys don't usually wear carnations at DHS, but these fellas were forced into it. They are the candidates for King of the annual Spinsters' Spree sponsored by GAA.

First Row: DeWayne Rochau, Ron Ralfs, Dave Brown.

Second Row: Louie Black, Roy Fluhrer, John Coffin.

Third Row: Dick Kreiter, n Murphy, Mike Fenn, Kent Johnson.

It has been great fun knowing you. I'll never forget your smile in the hall. I'm sorry I didn't get to your church again.

This time SHE takes HIM home. Saying a frosty goodnight are Brenda Nye and Dave Buhl. Reversing standard etiquette, the girls asked the fellas, bought corsages, and provided transportation along with an after-dance snack. (Wonder if she got him home on time?)

Pausing for a moment from dancing to the music of Jack Payne's orchestra Kay Kimberly and Dick Kay seem to be enjoying the evening.

MILITARY BALL

It looks like the ROTC has three new recruits! But, we're afraid they'd cause a little too much confusion during drills and inspections. Honorary Cadet Colonel Janet Fidler is flanked by Honorary Cadet Majors Joan Pavel, on the left, and Barbara Bowers, on the right.

It looks like they're enjoying their food! (At least some of them.) The Officers Banquet held at the Davenport Chamber of Commerce, was attended by all cadet officers, their dates, honorary officers, dates, and the ROTC staff instructors and their wives. Honored guests were General Weyher of the Rock Island Arsenal and Colonel Ernest Sanders of radio station WOC who was guest speaker.

Honorary Cadet Colonel Janet Fidler comes through the traditional sabre arch on the arm of Battalion Commander Howard Goettsch. This colorful event was a highlight of the Ball, which was held at the Coliseum.

These fifteen candidates for the military royalty were nominated by the student body and elected by the ROTC cadets.

First Row: Sally Hartman, Janet Fidler, Shirley Eller, Rusty Conklin, and Jo Nelson.

Second Row: Donna Clough, Beverly Geurink, Margaret Lindsay, Joan Hannan, and Barbara Bowers.

Third Row: Barbara Culp, Joan Pavel, Mary Wiegmann, Rosie Wessel, and Carole Sothmann.

THE OPERETTAS . . . STORIES TOLD IN SONG

*Best wishes to Helen from
Mr. A.*

Dodging ladders and equipment, tripping over hammers and saws, and avoiding loose wires added to the danger and regular confusion of the operetta rehearsals.

Disappointment
ran high when the beautiful blue velvet curtains weren't ready in time for the production. Nevertheless using makeshift curtains, the operettas were termed a great success, and the christening of the remodeled stage was complete.

Portraying Mary and Joseph for a tabloid in the Song of Christmas
are Nadine Latimer and Dale Bieber.
The a Cappella presented the story in song with various members singing solos.

"Down in the Valley" and "Trial By Jury" were under the direction of Milton Anderson, vocal music instructor.

Offering their gifts are the three Kings, Dennis Sissel, Wilbur Frahm and Dave Buhl.

Helen - Here's a toast to a really good girl. I know you'll have fun at Margaret's and I'm certain you'll do good. Remember all the fun we've had - - - - - what a week. Tom Fisher. P.S. You're a sweet girl.

"Down in The Valley" Jennie (Winnie Rook) and Braack (Tom Fisher) peer through the bars to look adoringly at each other. This Gilbert and Sullivan operetta was an old-time melodrama complete with villain, Maury Chamberlain, and cruel father, Jay Rohwedder.

Helen, go a gal who needsnt worry that she's not pretty. all that stuff. Remember our dear a cappella. All the fun we had. how you sherry you're a riot!

To coin a phrase, "All's well that ends well," and the Judge got the gal. Counsel Dave Carlstrom and Usher Bill White (right) listen to defendant John Thomas in the final scene of Kurt Weill's "Trial By Jury." Plaintiff Sherry Reemstma and Judge Bill Brookstra seem oblivious to co-actors and audience.

DRAMA ON STAGE . . COMEDY AND TRAGEDY

Going over their lines in "Harvey" for a last time before going on-stage, Jo Nelson and Joan Pavel tensely search their memories. They didn't forget either.

Elwood P. Dowd, better known to DHS students as Roy Fluhre poses with his friend Harvey after the All-School Play. Although Harvey is rather evasive, he kindly consented to just one photo. By the way, a rumor that some of the viewers of the play didn't actually see the "Tall One" was circulated. This proves that he really was there. Better have your eyes checked, hm Presenting the All-School Play, "Harvey," was the first big undertaking excellently performed by the dramatics department January 13 and 14. From this the drama-inclined students turned to the Winter Play Festival which was staged in February. Festival awards were voted to Janet Jugenheimer, Best Play Director; Nancy Erickson and Janice Peterson, Best Actresses; and Ruby Chatman, Honorable Mention. The Spring Festival was held in April and the Senior Play, "The Great Diamond Robbery," an old fashioned melodrama rounded out the season in May. Most of the dramatic productions were delayed by stage construction, but the convenience of the remodeled stage more than compensated for any temporary inconvenience.

Which part to try out for? is the question here at the tryouts for the Senior Class Play, "The Great Diamond Robbery," directed by Mr. Marston and presented May 5 and 6th.

The art of make-up is aptly demonstrated by Alice Fulk on Jan Peterson as Mrs. Tornquist supervises the operation. In dramatics classes students study make-up techniques and practice them on each other. Sounds like fun.

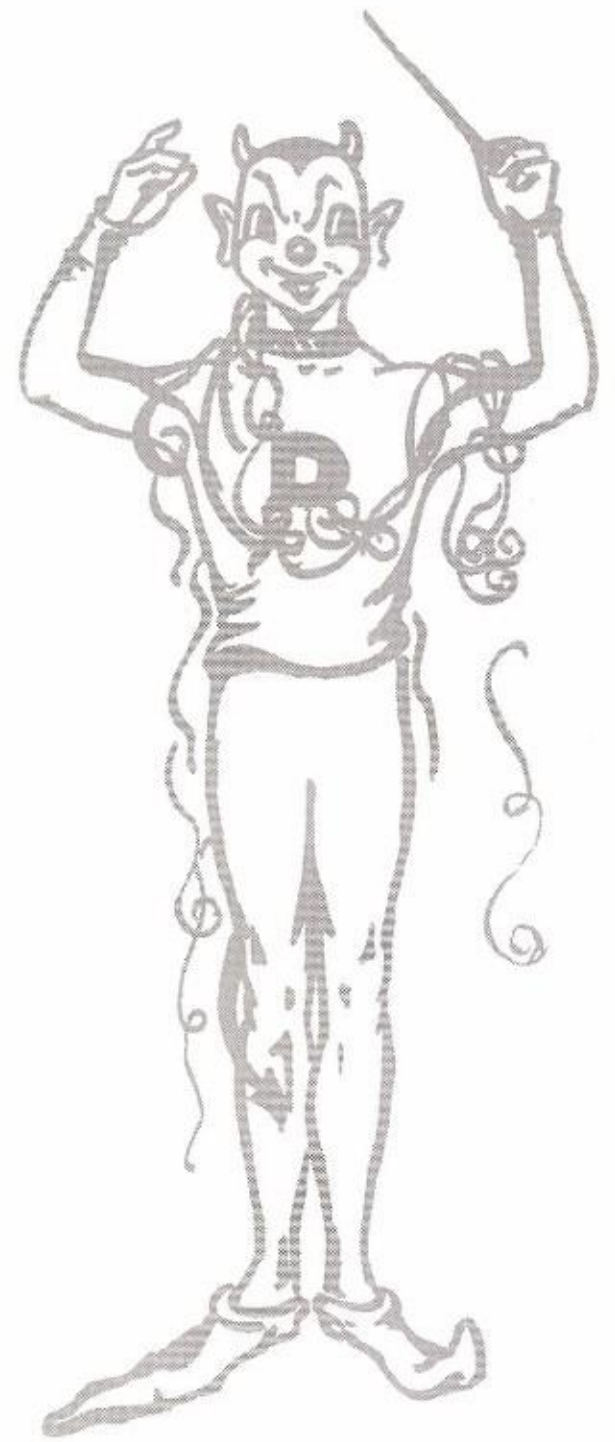

The heavenly pie on the table was the main character in "This Way To Heaven," presented at the Winter Play Festival. Supporting players were Jan Wiedeman, Carol Ives and Bob Eckerman.

Mister Mortiboy and Tom Fisher look over the score for one of the acts.

Luring both young and old, the 1955 Minstrel invited all to "Come to the Mardi Gras." Complete with southern jazz band and the blues, the cast provided an evening of merriment and complete entertainment. Called by many the best Minstrel ever, the house was packed both Friday and Saturday evenings, February 25 and 26, with SRO Saturday night. The colorful and bright extravaganza of vocal and instrumental and dance acts, M.C.ed by Tom Fisher, was directed by F. E. Mortiboy, while Milton Anderson assisted by directing the a Cappella. As in the past, the DHS Band and Orchestra Parents' Club sponsored the show and did most of the behind-the-scenes planning and preparation.

The opening chorus

MARDI GRAS . . . MINSTREL SHOW

Good luck to a swell gal. Always remember all the fun we had in the minstrels.

The whole cast relaxes after the show amid streamers galore.

High on her toes, Sheri Owens interprets "While We Danced at the Mardi Gras."

Best of everything this year was really a great acappella is about the neatest possible. Don't forget Otumwa!

Kenlyn Wells invites the audience to "Come to the Mardi Gras."

PUBLIC SPEAKING . . . BUILDER OF

Admiring the first place trophies they won at the Galesburg and Coe College Invitational debate tournaments are the members of the varsity debate squad: Emily Conklin and Jay Rohwedder, negative; and John Ronnebeck and Dick Johannesen, affirmative.

Gaining additional experience and poise in contest speaking situations are two of the benefits extracurricular public speakers derived from the program. Hours of hard work, with the criticism and advice of Mr. Ralph McGee, public speaking advisor, were spent preparing for contest work in humorous, dramatic, and oratorical declamation, extemporaneous speaking, television, radio speaking, original oratory, interpretive reading, student senate and discussion.

Mr. Ralph McGee, speech coach, advises Tom Fisher and Nancy Erickson on their interpretive readings.

Members of the B Debate team look over their arguments for and against free trade. They are Dave Ilten, Nancy Erickson, Betty Swain and Herb Hamsher.

Contests attended by the 1955 public speakers include the girls' declamation contest at East Moline, the Galesburg Invitational Debate Tournament, the boys' declamation contest at Rock Island, Coe College Speech Tourney, Augustana Invitational Debate Tournament, the University of Dubuque Invitational Debate Tourney, and the Iowa High School Speech Association and Iowa High School Forensic League Conferences. Approximately ten active speech students constituted the membership of the National Forensic League, an honorary speech organization. Officers for 1955 were Emily Conklin, president; Tom Fisher, vice-president; Nancy Erickson, secretary, and Jay Rohwedder, treasurer.

VOCAL MUSIC

The a Cappella Choir

Being in a Cappella is an honor held by only seventy-five DHS pupils. A lot of time and energy was put in by each member, but they were rewarded with a trip to Ottumwa for the spring festival and with singing before various civic organizations in Davenport. Selected groups also attended state contest, both in the fall and spring. These various groups are Madrigal, Girls' Sextet, Boys' Quartet, Girls' Quartet, Mixed Octet, Double Quartet, and Mixed Quartet. Most songsters who aspire to make a Cappella first enroll in one of the other vocal courses. These courses are Girls' Glee Club, Beginning Chorus and Advanced Chorus.

The Mixed Quartet works on songs for state contest.

Madrigal is a combination of Girls' Sextet and Boys' Quartet.

HARMONY IN SONG

Shirley Eller, Ellen McGregor, Anne Strieter and Pat Iverson compose the Girls' Quartet.

Members of the Mixed Octet are Beverly Rhines, Barb Hafford, Jan Peterson, Annetta Leavy, Maury Chamberlain, Leo Behal, Bill White and Dave Carlstrom.

DHS INSTRUMENTALISTS WIN

The Davenport High School Band

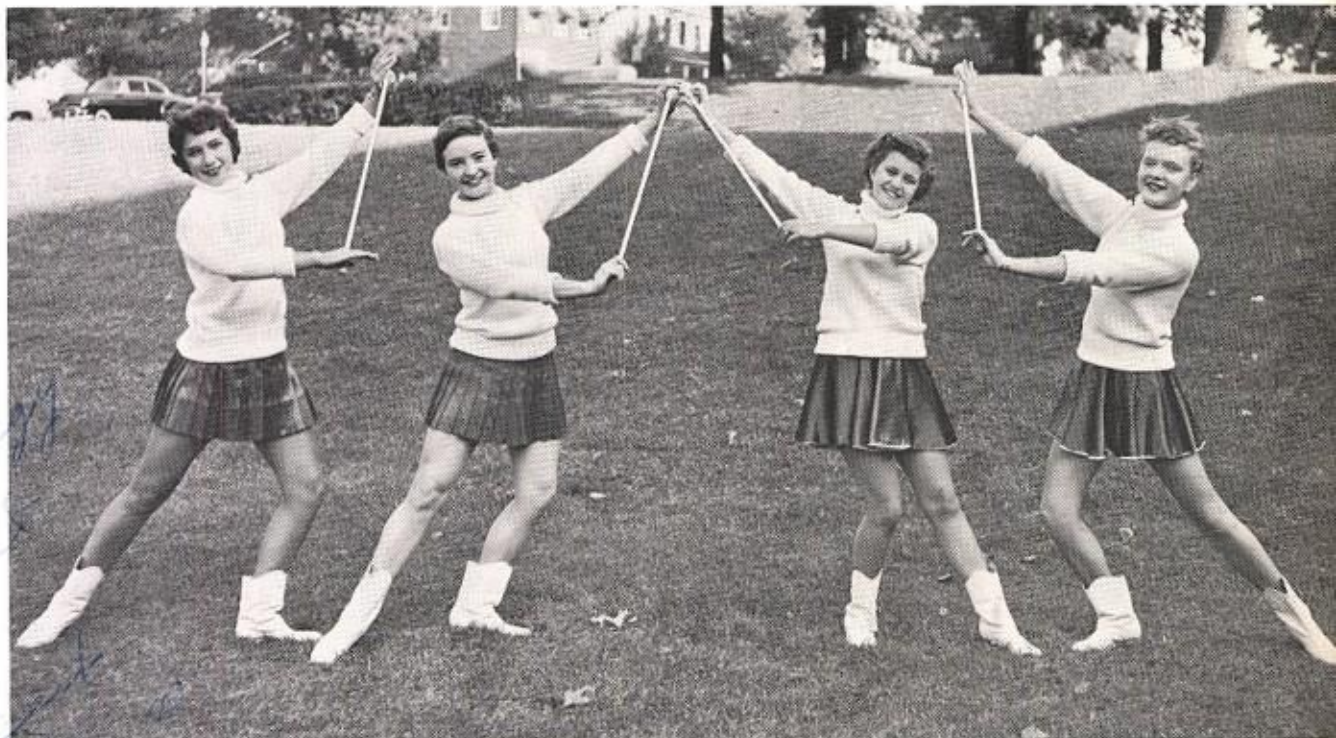

Listening to an explanation by Mr. Schaffer are the members of the string quintet, Pat Volk, Ellen Blaser, Terry Tingwald, Jan Wiedeman, and Sheri Gillette.

Putting in time for a practice session is the woodwind quintet: Janet Foley, Donna Dunning, Dan Kennedy, Ruby Stratton, and Marcia Mortiboy, under the direction of Mr. Bates.

NATIONWIDE ACCLAIM

The DHS majorettes pose with raised batons. These girls, Donna Clough, Otilie Weldon, Sandy Rasher and Sharon Lewis, displayed a combination of talent and beauty when they performed with the band during half time at the football games.

Bringing national acclaim to Davenport, the Davenport High School Band, under the capable direction of F. E. Mortiboy, appeared December 17 at the Mid-West National Band Clinic to highlight the Chicagoland Music Festival. Playing before thousands of directors and critics from all over the country, the organization drew praise from all for its outstanding performance: the reward for diligent daily practice by the 111 members.

No less busy has been the orchestra, which performed publicly several times, notably accompanying the operettas and the Christmas program. Special groups also played for various occasions, such as the Minstrel Show. The 53 members practiced every day as a group, besides individual preparation.

The Spring Concert and the Ottumwa Music Festival, in which both instrumental groups participated, also highlighted the year.

The Davenport High School Orchestra

SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS . . .

Conferring with Don Hempstead, advisor, are the Student Council officers: Dick Kreiter, president; Tom Murphy, vice-president; Mike Fenn, treasurer; and Shirley Eller, secretary.

Thumbing through for ideas are the members of the service committee, Mike Dardis, Arno Lafrenz, Margaret Lindsay, Jackie Lindahl and Don Otto, who were responsible for Christmas decorations, Open House planning, the rearrangement of trophies, and obtaining a TV set so loyal fans could watch the World Series.

Striving for betterment of high school conditions and activities was the objective of the 1955 Student Council. DHS was instrumental in organizing the Quint-City Student Congress, comprised of representatives from all high school student councils. The Code of Ethics, proposed by the DHS delegation, was adopted by all.

Much time and thought were given to the revision of the trophy arrangement. The Council initiated a student collection to finance a foreign student next year. As in the past, the organization assisted the Athletic Parents' Club in its program.

STUDENT PROGRESS

Glancing at a Red Cross publication are the Red Cross officers: Winnie Rook, president; Evelyn Shippy, secretary, and Donna Stewart, vice-president.

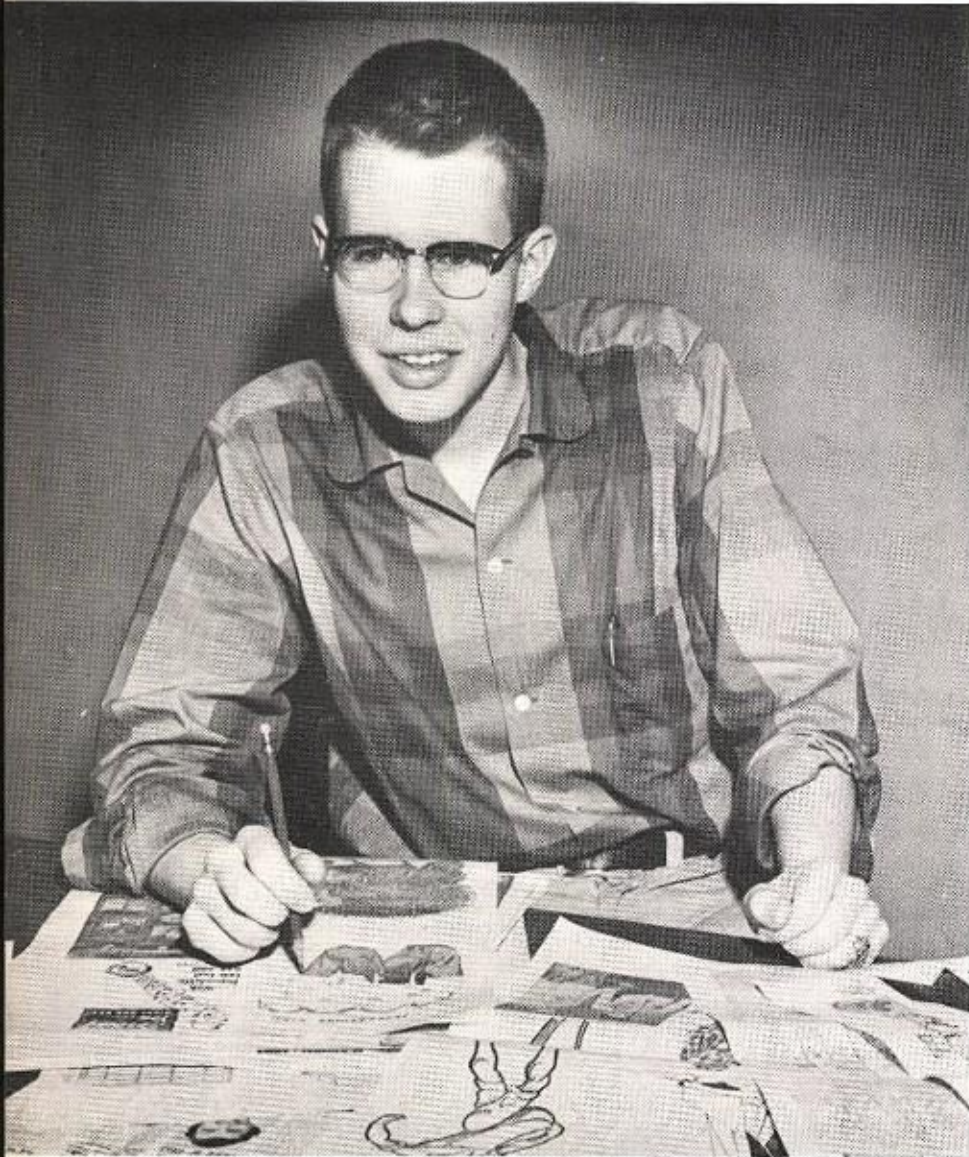

Opening the year with a membership drive, the Junior Red Cross collected $160. Projects included gift boxes for foreign children, Christmas sacks, tray favors, and cards for shut-ins. The Senior Council, composed of two representatives from every high school and junior high in Davenport and Bettendorf, met bi-weekly to plan projects for the Red Cross groups to carry out.

Mrs. Imogene Sandway directs Red Cross representatives Janet Kelsey and Annabelle Corcoran in the packing of gift boxes for children in foreign lands.

BY-LINES AND DEADLINES

Someday when I can think of something to say in a yearbook, I'll say it (Remind me!) But until then, simply the best of luck always,

John Ronnebeck, Editor-in-Chief, manages a smile as he looks up from working on some newspaper copy.

"What do you think?" seems to be the question here among Kay Kimberly (seated), Circulation Editor, and around her, Sylvia Adams, Business Manager, Tom Connors, Assistant Business Manager, Donna Stewart, Exchange Editor, and Sherry Hempstead, her assistant.

Dashing, colorful, and hard-hitting might describe the 1954-55 Blackhawk which from time to time departed from the staid ways of high school journalism to delve into subjects of worldly interest. Feature editorials presented food for thought on the extensive topics of teachers' salaries, driver education and racial discrimination. The paper also received a modernistic layout with shorter stories to produce a sharper, more clear cut and more interesting paper for the student body.

However, this achievement required endless hours of thought and digging for material. After writing, copyreading and proofreading, the Blackhawk was printed on DHS's own presses, a feat few high school papers can claim. The staff rejoiced when the news was received of the Blackhawk winning a first place award in the annual contest sponsored by the Scholastic Press Association of Columbia University.

Mr. H. H. Wubben, Editorial Advisor, critically views an issue of the Blackhawk, while Marian Postel, Feature Editor, looks a little happier about it. Standing are reporters Carol Heeschen, Joan Pavel, Lee Crawford, and Janet Miller.

It's not often that the entire reporting staff is seen together — they're out hunting up scoops. This is an exception, though, and lined up, first row are Kay Kimberly, Barb Hafford, John Thomas, Emily Conklin and Bob Ehlers. Second Row: Nan Wardell, Margaret Martin, Merrill Ohl, Bob Beardsley, Lucretia Fagan, Pat Kelly, Delores Chilla, Bev Rhines, Carole Sothmann and Sue Darrell.

Let's go boys! Get those ads! Proving his point on the ad chart is Larry Loving, Ad Manager. His willing audience, Ron Claussen, Dennis Brunk and Harry Ehmsen, seem pepped up enough to really bring in business.

1955 YEARBOOK . . . THE BIG PICTURE

Revolutionizing the yearbook the 1955 staff produced a nine by twelve inch book for the first time in the long history of DHS annuals. The larger, more modern book has a new style hard cover and a more streamlined layout throughout. The impish little figures seen meddling in various activities throughout the book were created by Mary Lou Wiegmann, Art Editor. For the first time in the history of DHS all graduating seniors had their pictures taken for the annual — a real accomplishment! Another change was the inclusion of individual pictures of the faculty members, in place of group pictures.

Most DHS students would question the sanity of anyone coming to school on Saturdays, but yearbook staff members worked Saturday mornings as well as before and after school. Working early and late, the staff writers racked their brains to "liven-up" copy, and deadlines were an ever-present threat to the sanity of several as they put together the memories of another eventful year at DHS.

Pondering over a sports caption are Barb Hafford, Associate Editor, and John Thomas, Sports Editor, while Pat Grosskopf, Business Manager, industriously types invoices.

Working on picture layouts and copy are Mary Ann Bindewald, Copy Editor, Ellen Blaser, Club Editor, Jan Foley, her assistant, and Mary Wiegmann, Art Editor.

Major Norman C. McCardell is giving instruction to the ROTC cadet battalion. Left to right: Cadet Capt. Jack Albright, executive officer Cadet Maj. Jacob A. Albright, battalion commander Cadet Lieut. Col. Howard Goodrich, Maj. McCardell, Cadet Cap. Jay Rohwer, Cadet Dick Johannesen, and Cadet Capt. David Carlisle.

"Preparing for Citizenship" might be the motto of the ROTC unit at DHS, for that is the primary aim of the course.

The military ideal is secondary, but contributes to the achievement of the basic goal. Most activities of the cadets are extra curricular, including the ROTC band, drill team, color guard, and various rifle teams.

ROTC's social event of the year culminates with the commissioning of the Honorary Cadet Colonel and Majors, this year Janet Fidler, Joan Pavel and Barbara Bowers, respectively.

A rather unusual feature of the color guard this year is that two sets of twins carry the colors for the DHS ROTC battalion. They are George Ashton, William Ashton, Steve Fredericksen and Barry Fredericksen.

The ROTC Drillmasters execute the Queen Anne's Salute. Members of the drill team practice faithfully to perfect the precision maneuvers. Cadet Lieut. Col. Howard Goettsch is the leader of the Masters this year. Blue scarves, white helmets and distinctive foot gear denote their special position in the ROTC program.

To the "Buckboard Bounce!" Toasting this grand event are the co-chairmen, Sarah Derry and Arno Lafrenz, who put in a lot of hard work to insure the party's success. And a success it was! Shoes were checked at the door, so it was truly a "sock" hop. Bales of hay, corn stalks, and a barnyard atmosphere set the scene. The net result of the evening? Tired feet and happy smiles.

David Wenger

Fine entertainment was a major attraction at each of the class parties. The Junior Cotton Ball, "April in Paris," was no exception as Dave Denger proves here.

The Cotton Ball featured a Parisian setting, strolling accordionist, can-can line of shapely fellas, plus the danceable rhythm of the Swingsters.

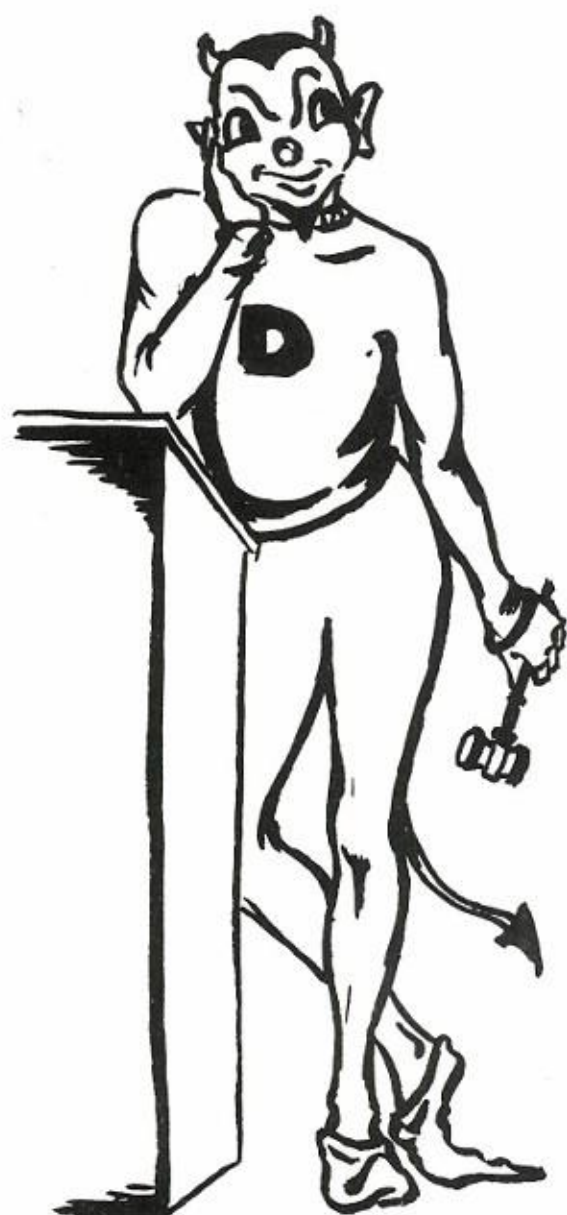

CLASS PARTIES . . . FUN FOR ALL

"Musical Hits" provided an appropriate theme for the party that made a hit with the newcomers. Responsible for the success of the Newcomers' Party were the sophomore committee chairmen, Jean Berg, Julie Gibson, Anne Cummins, Mel Harper, Bob Curnan and Jim Wilhelm. Nice job, kids.

Chaperones are a necessary evil, but in this case they were merely necessary. The seniors also entertained the parents of the co-chairmen. Pictured are Miss Leona Soehren, in appropriate Sock Hop costume, Mr. and Mrs. Lafrenz, Mr. Paul Johnson (behind) Mr. and Mrs. Derry and Principal Roger Berry, who seems to have found something besides punch in his cup.

ART CLUB

Examining art projects displayed at the Davenport Municipal Art Gallery are Jean Henderson and Janet Stebbins.

Capably guiding Art Club first semester were Margaret Peterson, president; Tom Wood, vice president; Janet Stebbins, secretary; and Mary Jean Albertsen, treasurer.

Taking over the leadership second semester were Elaine Neumann, president; Virginia Peterson, vice-president; Mary Jean Albertsen, secretary; and Carol Martin, treasurer. Supervising the club's numerous activities was Mr. Paul Johnson. The Art Club incorporated a point system by which members could earn a pin, a ring, and books. Points were received by attending meetings, making the decorative posters seen in the halls, serving teas at the art gallery, and planning the meetings. These awards were presented at a service during the final meeting of the year in May. Entertainment at meetings consisted of art movies and slides, games, or musical talent, followed by refreshments.

Officers for Camera Club this year were president, Ed Grayson; vice-president, Bob McCoy; and secretary-treasurer, Bill White. The advisor during the first semester was Mrs. Ruth Cole. For the second semester Mr. Ray Van Hennik served as club advisor. At their meetings, Camera Club had several guest speakers, showed slides, and taught camera techniques and darkroom processing.

ELECTRONICS CLUB

Operating sound and lighting equipment in auds and school plays was one of the behind the scenes service projects of the Electronics Club. Meetings, held every other Monday in the I.A. building, were the source of educational entertainment. Members discussed various ideas about electronics and demonstrated equipment, such as a tape recorder. Many members were avid radio enthusiasts, one being a licensed "ham" and several others working to achieve this title. First semester officers were president, Jim Devitt; vice-president, Richard Dalton; and secretary-treasurer, James Dalzell. During the second semester, Dick Rosche was president Phil Fleming was vice-president, Jim Devitt was secretary, and Jack Serrine was treasurer. Mr. Richard Davis was advisor.

D-MEN'S

Coach Stolfa and D-Men Lee Crawford and Bill Brookstra look over some of the new football gear that the next year's teams will have the good fortune to use.

The purpose of the D-Men's Club is to promote good sportsmanship among students and athletes. The honorary club was organized in 1950 under the direction of Mr. Wally Schwank. Mr. A. J. Stolfa, athletic director, is the club advisor. Meetings are held periodically and as the need arises.

A major project of the club is the annual March of Dimes collection at a designated basketball game. Receipts are turned over to the Scott County Polio Fund.

The total collection at the St. Ambrose game amounted to $243.03.

DRAMATICS

The purpose of Dramatics Club is to supplement classroom activities and to stimulate interest in all phases of dramatic art and speech. Membership is open to any high school student interested in speech or dramatic art. Meetings were held once each month in the auditorium under the supervision of Mrs. Mae Elma Tornquist. In March, there was an evening meeting to which parents and friends were invited. Talent for this meeting was chosen from among the club members. Dramatics Club sponsored two play festivals this year. These festivals consisted of a number of one-act plays which were directed and presented entirely by students.

First Row: Nancy Wiedeman, Barb Hafford, Carol Heeschen, Pat Fairbanks, Martha Luther, Janet Stebbins. CLUB

Letters are awarded each year for outstanding work. These letters may be earned by acting or helping with the senior class play or the all-school play, or by participating in numerous other activities. Officers for the year were Jack Albrecht, president; Jo Nelson, vice-president; Joan Pavel, secretary; Merrill Ohl, treasurer. To offer members an opportunity to act in dramatic productions, the club gave plays for several civic organizations. This spring, they presented plays for the Parent-Teacher Associations of several Davenport schools.

Second Row: Sue Thorne, Mary Stow, Jolene Cox, Margaret Strohm, Paul Buntenschach, Nolan McCaulley, Madelyn Essex, Delores Morrison, Virginia Jones, Joyce Disney.

As its aim, the Christian Youth Club has strived to promote Christian fellowship among students of all denominations. First semester officers guiding the club were president, Mary Warner; vice-president, Jean Peterson; and secretary-treasurer, Nancy Strohm. During the second semester the officers were president Jean Peterson; vice-president, Jolene Cox; and secretary-treasurer, Mary Stow. Beth Magnuson served as pianist. The advisor was Mr. Roger Berry. Meetings, held on Friday afternoons, were opened with a prayer, followed by group singing of hymns. On several occasions ministers from various churches and other guests delivered inspiring messages to the group. Other programs of the club included piano solos and duets, talks by members of the club and Bible quizzes.

Safe Drivers' Club is a newly organized club at DHS. It was originated this year to promote safe, courteous driving among teenage drivers. The club met once a month in the Activities Room. Mr. John C. Haack was the faculty advisor. In addition to regular meetings, the club's program included a visit to the Davenport Police Department. Also, they had guest speakers, including an automobile insurance representative. Officers for the year were Anne Strieter, president; John Nickles, vice-president, Mary Anne Curtis, secretary, and Merrill Ohl, treasurer.

FHA

The Future Homemakers of America is a national organization of pupils studying homemaking in junior and senior high schools of the United States.

Its motto "Toward New Horizons" expresses the purpose of the organization — learning to live better today in order that our lives and those of our families may be better tomorrow. Each year the club sponsors a worthwhile project to benefit the community. This year $40 was given to the new school for mentally retarded children in Davenport. This money was used to purchase needed equipment for the school. At one of the monthly meetings, Miss Carson spoke on homes, life and people of Mexico and showed colored slides. A Witches' Carnival, held in the attic of the Home Economics Building, provided so much fun that it has become an annual affair. Leading the club as co-presidents were Georgia Goben and Barbara Goff. The secretary was Betty Lange; Donna Goben served as treasurer, and Grace Blessing was historian. Miss Catherine Downing, assisted by Miss Charlotte Carson, acted as club advisor.

Grace Blessing serves the other FHA officers, Betty Lange, Georgia Goben, and Barbara Goff.

FRENCH

Second semester French Club officers
Nancy Wardell, Sandy Stange, Jean Schalla, and Lucretia Fagan laugh over Nancy's facetious suggestion for their next program.

One of the highlights of the French Club's activities was the Christmas meeting, at which several guests from various parts of France and Switzerland who are studying in this country conducted the meeting in French. (Say, kids, you didn't know as much French as you thought you knew, did you?)

At the March meeting Miss Nancy Romine, executive director of Davenport Girl Scouts, gave an illustrated lecture on her recent trip abroad.

A play, written in French by second year students, was presented at the April meeting.

First Row: Jo Anne McLean, Judy Ray, Edie Wessel, Darlene Dutcher, Ruth Rhines, Dixie Hoxsey, Josette Duclaux. Second Row: Marcia Oliver, Mary Blaser, Peg Korn, Betty Swain, Sherry Hempstead, Marilyn Shor, Lucretia Fagan, Doris Connerley. Third Row: Marian Postel, Nancy Erickson, Mary Warner, Beth Magnuson, Margaret J. CLUB

First semester officers were president, Janet Fidler; vice-president, Jean Schalla; secretary, Kay Kimberly; and treasurer, Sandy Stange. At second semester elections

Nancy Wardell was selected to serve as president, Lucretia Fagan became secretary, and Jean and Sandy were re-elected to their respective offices.

Miss Dorothy Blackman acted as club advisor. Club funds, earned by selling refreshments at athletic contests, were set aside to purchase books, magazines, records, and pictures for the use of the French classes.

Appropriations committee members Judy Ray, Mary Ann Chance, Peggy Korn, and Shirley Sipes consider ideas for spending French Club funds.

GIRLS ATHLETIC

The Girls Athletic Association, known more commonly to its 362 members as G.A.A., strives continually to stimulate interest in wholesome leisure-time recreation and promote good sportsmanship by offering a variety of physical activities. To encourage participation in these activities, awards are presented each spring. A G.A.A. letter is given to those members earning 500 points, and a state pin to those acquiring 1000 points. The highest award presented is a local three-striped blue "D," which represents 1750 points.

ASSOCIATION

To earn points a member may participate in various intramural activities, such as bowling, basketball and track. This year the awards were presented at a picnic on May 12.

Many interesting meetings offered an enjoyable time for all in attendance. These included a roller-skating party, a bowling party, and a meeting at which Mrs. Leona Bredbeck gave a talk, followed by a discussion, on recreational facilities and chances of summer jobs in Davenport.

Members also enjoyed delectable refreshments after each meeting.

Miss Marjorie Holderness and Mrs. Rena Driggs, G.A.A. advisors, discuss the act performed by Alice Fulk at the junior-senior program in March.

Dee Dee Danico goes through wild contortions as she acts out a record pantomime at the Christmas party

One of the highlights of the year was the Christmas party, at which an enjoyable talent show was presented by a group of capable sophomores. Following the entertainment, a delicious supper was served in the cafeteria.

G.A.A. again sponsored the ever popular Spinsters' Spree, "Serenade in Blue." This year's Spree was the best, to say the least!!

Leaders of the club and its successful activities were Jo Nelson, president; Shirley Eller, vice-president; Betty Lange, secretary-treasurer, and Rusty Conklin, program chairman.

Advisors were Mrs. Rena Driggs and Miss Marjorie Holderness.

Sophomores. First Row: Virginia Peterson, Donna Whitlock, Mary Stow, Karen Rasmussen, Kay Still, Pat Beitel, Betty Swain, Karen Kron, Liz Berger, Lyn Jones, Lois Hendricks, Gail Struve, Margie Maxwell, Maxine Stuhr, Margaret Peterson. Second Row: Sue Dettlaff, Cynthia Stage, Judie Hartsock, Carol Flanders, Carol Schemmel, Pat Fath, Pat Haas, Judy Bullard, Susan Yazman, Joyce Fleming, Sally Fluhrer, Sheri Owens, Sandy White, Bev Thobe, Sally Thomas, Marcia Oliver, Brenda Nye, Kathy Lewis. Third Row: Judy Campbell, Sally Luehje, Judy Huecksteadt, Mary E. GERMAN CLUB

German Club officers, Connie Hurt, Sherry Reemtsma, and Bill Sible enthusiastically confer about plans for future meetings and activities.

The purpose of German Club is to further acquaint students with German life and customs, and to increase learning and recreation that class time limits. Programs included movies, songs, and talks. At one meeting, Miss Shinn showed pictures she took on her trip to Europe last summer.

Meetings, held monthly, were supervised by Miss Florence Anderson. Officers for the year were president, Bill Sible; vice-president, Sherry Reemtsma; secretary, Eric Linse, and treasurer, Connie Hurt.

Seniors. First Row: Ken Hillebrand, Dave Brown, Ralph Boden, John Coffin, Dick Kreiter, LeRoy Crawford, Eugene Ryan, Bill Brookstra, Dick Mohl, Jay Rohwedder, Jack Albrecht. Second Row: Dave Larson, Dean Maas, Mike Dardis, Dave Ferguson, Jack Smit, Glenn Baggerly, Steve Fersch, Tom Fry, Chuck Herring, Dave Carlstrom, Dick Rosche, John Gerber, Mr. G. HI-Y

LeRoy Crawford and Dick Mohl talk over world problems with Simon Wehrli, seated, exchange student from Switzerland.

The purpose of Hi-Y is to create, maintain, and extend high standards of Christian character throughout home, school, and community. The club platform is clean living, speech, activities, and scholarship.

Senior Chapter Officers were Dick Kreiter, president;
 LeRoy Crawford, vice-president;
 Eugene Ryan, secretary;
 and Bill Brookstra, treasurer.
 Mr. G. R. Steffen was the advisor.

This year's foreign student, Simon Wehrli, was sponsored by Hi-Y and Tri-Y. They hope to bring another foreign student, a girl, to DHS next year. This is made possible by the Co-ed Carnival and other fund-raising activities of the clubs. Holy Week services were held during the week of April 4th in our newly remodeled auditorium. These services are sponsored jointly by Hi-Y and Tri-Y each year.

Junior Chapter Officers were Bob Hain, president; Sam Bowlby, vice-president; Dick Pohlman, secretary; and Tom Hamilton, treasurer. The faculty advisor was Mr. Robert Williams.

Mel Harper and Bob Beardsley compare notes on their "Youth In Government" experiences.

Hi-Y is composed of three chapters, which usually met individually. At Christmas time, the club met as a whole for its annual Alumni Dinner and Christmas program. Meetings were held at the YMCA on Wednesday evenings, and included a program every two weeks. Sophomore officers were Jack Sharp, president; George Ashton, vice-president; Bill Hawkins, secretary, and Tom Brader, treasurer. Mr. Harold B. Marston served as advisor to the Sophomore chapter.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Nineteen new members were admitted this year at DHS into Quill and Scroll, national honorary society for high school journalists. Membership requirements were raised in an effort to insure that membership in the organization would truly signify outstanding journalistic achievement on a high school level. Junior initiates were required to pass a comprehensive battery of tests in newswriting, copy reading, proofreading, news and advertising layout and newspaper terminology. Dick Johannesen and Barbara Culp, senior two-year members, served, respectively, as president and secretary-treasurer.

Quill and Scroll officers Barb Culp and Dick Johannesen get down to work on plans for the Publications Banquet. What a job!

Latin club officers Liga Viksne, Maxine Rock, Sue Trissell, and Roger Heiser pose with Caesar's famous slogan, "Veni, Vidi, Vici," meaning "I came, I saw, I conquered."

The Comitium Romanum, known more commonly as Latin Club, aimed through its meetings to instill in its 89 members a knowledge of Latin other than routine classwork. At the Thanksgiving meeting an appropriate skit with an effective Latin background was presented. The program at Christmastime included the Lord's Prayer and several songs in Latin.

Other programs included panel discussions and slides. Each meeting was concluded with the serving of refreshments.

CLUB

Joining the other language clubs at their annual picnic at Duck Creek Park, Latin Club rounded out a most successful year. The officers during first semester were First Consul, Elizabeth Ann Berger; Second Consul, Kenlyn Wells; Scriba, Joyce Matelski; and Quaestor, Annabelle Ehlers. For the second semester Roger Heiser was First Consul; Sue Trissel was Second Consul; Liga Viksne served as Scriba; and Maxine Rock was Quaestor. Supervising the club was Miss Minnie Eskelson.

Pete Tunison, Dick Bondi, Zilpha Woods, and George Ashton are amused at models of an ancient turris, a signal tower, and an onegar.

A downtown store? No, sir. This is a counter in the retail training room and it appears to be a rather popular place . . . at least Barb Nute, Mary Bengt, Mary Hedberg, Marge Cook and Gene Ryan are enjoying their experiences here.

RETAILERS CLUB

Seniors enrolled in Retail Training Program had the privilege of belonging to Retailers' Club, which was organized to promote further interest in the problems of retailing. At one meeting an informative talk on salesmanship was given by Mrs. Julia Rouse, who holds the position of buyer for a local department store.

As an interesting and educational activity, the club sponsored a field trip downtown to observe store operations. First semester officers were Joan Scheer, president; Pat Golden, vice-president; Jo Annette Wright, secretary; and Mary Knox, treasurer. Guiding the club during the second semester were Gene Ryan, president; Mary Knox, vice-president; Pat Hendren, secretary, and Karen Kincaid, treasurer. Mr. Howard Rosenwinkel acted as advisor.

OFFICERS CLUB

The ROTC Officers Club promotes projects for the improvement and welfare of the corps. Major Norman C. McCardell was club advisor, and the club met at various times during the year.

The social highlight of the year was the Military Ball, which was planned and conducted by the club.

Officers for the year were John Gerber, president; John Coffin, vice-president; Jackie Hintze, secretary, and Dick Johannesen, treasurer.

First Row: Jay Rohwedder, Jacques Andre, Howard Goettsch, Richard Johannesen, David Carlstrom.

SERVICE CLUB

The ROTC Service Club consists of cadets of the ROTC battalion who are qualified by showing their interest, responsibility, trustworthiness, reliability, and honesty. The club functioned on money earned by cadets who assisted at basketball games, football games and numerous other school activities.

Cadets who participated received merit awards. The club also sponsored the "Drillmasters" and the ROTC Band. Officers for the year were Jacques Andre, president; Howard Goettsch, vice-president; John Gerber, secretary; and Walter Anderson, sergeant-at-arms. The club advisor was M/Sgt. Chester H. Fee.

Spanish Club officers Bev Wendhausen, Ellen Blaser, Tillie Gomez, and Johnny Gerber discuss plans for the next meeting.

SPANISH

Guiding Spanish Club this year were Tillie Gomez, president; Beverly Wendhausen, vice-president; Johnny Gerber, secretary; Ellen Blaser, treasurer, and advisor, Miss Marilyn Clark.

At the monthly meetings many interesting programs were presented. A type of crossword puzzle was played in Spanish at the November meeting, after which Miss Flossie Bates, who was the club advisor last year, gave an interesting and informative talk on the trip she took to Mexico last summer.

CLUB

At the Christmas meeting Miss Clark led the group in singing Christmas carols in Spanish. Then Tillie Gomez and Marian Quijas performed the "Mexican Hat Dance" and demonstrated the "Raspa." A variation of "Truth or Consequences," moderated by Bob Eckerman, was the theme of another meeting. In March, Miss Charlotte Carson spoke and showed colored slides of her trip to Mexico. Spanish Club joined the other language clubs at a combined picnic in May to conclude its year of activities.

Attired in typical Mexican hats, Carl Johnson, Bob Eckerman, and Bonnie Maxwell conduct a quiz show for Spanish Club members.

TRI-Y

From September to June, the members of Tri-Y were busily engaged in numerous successful club activities. The spirit and guidance behind these activities were the capable and efficient Tri-Y officers and cabinet. Holding these responsible positions were Rosie Wessel, president; Barb Culp, vice-president; Joan Pavel, secretary, and Shirley Eller, treasurer. Faithfully contributing time and work to Tri-Y were Miss Shirley Holmes, advisor, and Miss Vera Ehlers and Miss Lorena Shinn, faculty advisors. Starting off the chain of events this year was the fall planning conference with Hi-Y at Camp Abe Lincoln. Following this came many interesting meetings and numerous other activities. At the first meeting, several skits were given by the cabinet explaining their respective committees. In October a fall style show sponsored by Scharffs was presented at the First Presbyterian Church. Group participation in a worship and singing service provided the Thanksgiving program.

Smiling over a pamphlet are Miss Shirley Holmes, Tri-Y advisor, and members Nancy Hedberg and Helen Feldhahn.

Another time, Miss Ehlers gave a talk on India and several girls modeled typical clothing of that country. A movie showing 100 years of progress of the national YWCA was shown at the January meeting.

Other meetings included: a panel of Hi-Y and Tri-Y members discussing the possibility of dividing Tri-Y into three chapters;

a talk and demonstration by Barbara Lund, manager of a local charm school; a hair-cutting and styling demonstration by Rex Tague, of Rex's Beauty Salon; and a talk on boy-girl relations by Dr. Lydia Jordan.

Besides all these interesting meetings, Tri-Y sponsored many outside events. Several girls attended a planning conference in Burlington in the fall. Two bake sales were held to raise funds. The Huddle Hop, an informal dance held at St. John's, carried out a football theme. Another dance just before Christmas was held at the Y.

Several Tri-Y girls served guests and also modeled old style bathing suits at the YWCA centennial banquet.

A contribution was made to the World Fellowship.

A spring style show was held in the aud for all the interested girls and teachers at school.

The inspiring Holy Week services, sponsored jointly with Hi-Y, were an outstanding feature of the year's activities.

Tri-Y also helped sponsor the Co-ed Carnival, proceeds of which were to be used to bring another foreign student to DHS. Finally, the installation of next year's officers at the annual Rose Banquet concluded a year of joyous Tri-Y activities.

Posing a question for Dr. Lydia Jordan is Verla Schmidt, right, while Jill Dickinson seems quite amused by the whole thing.

First Row: Barbara Whipple, Sheri Owens, Liz Ann Berger, Lyn Jones, Jean McCracken, Lois Hendricks, Jane Woeber, Karen Kron, Annabelle Ehlers, Peggy Van Camp. Second Row: Mary Lou Maurer, Linda Koolbeck, Sally Fluhrer, Susan Yazmun, Betty Swain, Sharon Burchett, Bonnie Maxwell, Kay Still, Sue Thorne, Edie Wessel, Brenda Nye, Tonya Sanders. Third Row: Sally Berge, Anne Cummins, Sue Willits, Ann Wilhelm, Julie Gibson, Judie Hartsock, Joyce Fleming, Sue Carroll, Rosie Deal, Margie Maxwell, Maxine Stuhr, Dorie Holtz, Barbara Fernald, Janice Leichenring. Fourth Row: Carol Hamann, Phyllis Brus, Kathy Schultz, Judy Johnson, Dianne Riessen, Gail Struve, Jackie Cisler, Ruth Rhines, Doris Connerley, Sandy White, Virginia Underwood, Connie Carroll, Mary Stow, Barbara Eckhardt, Donna Stewart. Fifth Row: Lyn Francis, Karen Rasmussen, Janet Likeness, Sue Dettlaff, Karen Kuchel, Doris Duggleby, Nancy Hedberg, Mary Blaser, Bev Thobe, Sue Zoeckler, Marcia Oliver, Lula Daily, Sue Cosby, Jean Berg.

The Cabinet. First Row: Margaret Martin, Connie Hurt, Carolyn Reed, Sarah Derry, Sally Hartman, Sherry Hempstead, Kay Kimberly, and Alice Fulk.

Standing: Marian Postel, Joann Stuhr, and Margaret Lindsay.

These are the capable heads of committees, who are responsible for programs and projects. A big job, too!

THESPIANS

The purpose of the National Thespian Dramatic Honor Society is to create a spirit of active and intelligent interest among high school students.

To be eligible for membership, a student must earn ten dramatic points in speech and dramatic work. Each point represents ten hours of work. Meetings are called when matters of importance arise and are held in room 63. Mrs. Mae Elma Tornquist is the club advisor. Thespians held their winter banquet February 12. A formal initiation took place at the spring banquet in early June. The officers for this year were as follows:

President, Roy Fluhrer; vice-president, John Thomas; secretary, Joan Hannan.

What have we here? A happy group of Thespians reading through the latest play. According to their expressions, Joan Pavel, Jan Jugenheimer, Otilie Weldon and Merrill Ohl seem to find it rather amusing. Roy Fluhrer is a bit more skeptical about the whole thing.

It's to Helen, could never make Thespian. It's a lot of fun. "Good Luck" in the future. Jim Dalzell

FOOTBALL

Bob Hebler

Davenport football coach, Anton J. (Butch) Stolfa, and his assistants looked forward to the 1954 season with mixed feelings. "We knew we had a lot of good, experienced material coming back from the year before," said Stolfa, "and we anticipated a pretty good season. But we didn't want to count our chickens too soon. All we could do was work hard and hope that the experience and talent we had in our hands would perform as we knew it could." If ever a team fulfilled a coach's hopes, it was this 1954 squad. The Imps copped all the titles in sight, the City, Quad-City and Mississippi Valley Conference. And, in addition, they gained statewide recognition, placing second to Roosevelt of Des Moines in the final Iowa sportswriters' balloting to select the state's top eleven.

Triumphs over St. Ambrose, 10 to 0, and Cedar Rapids McKinley, 48 to 0, were previews of good things to come in the early fall.

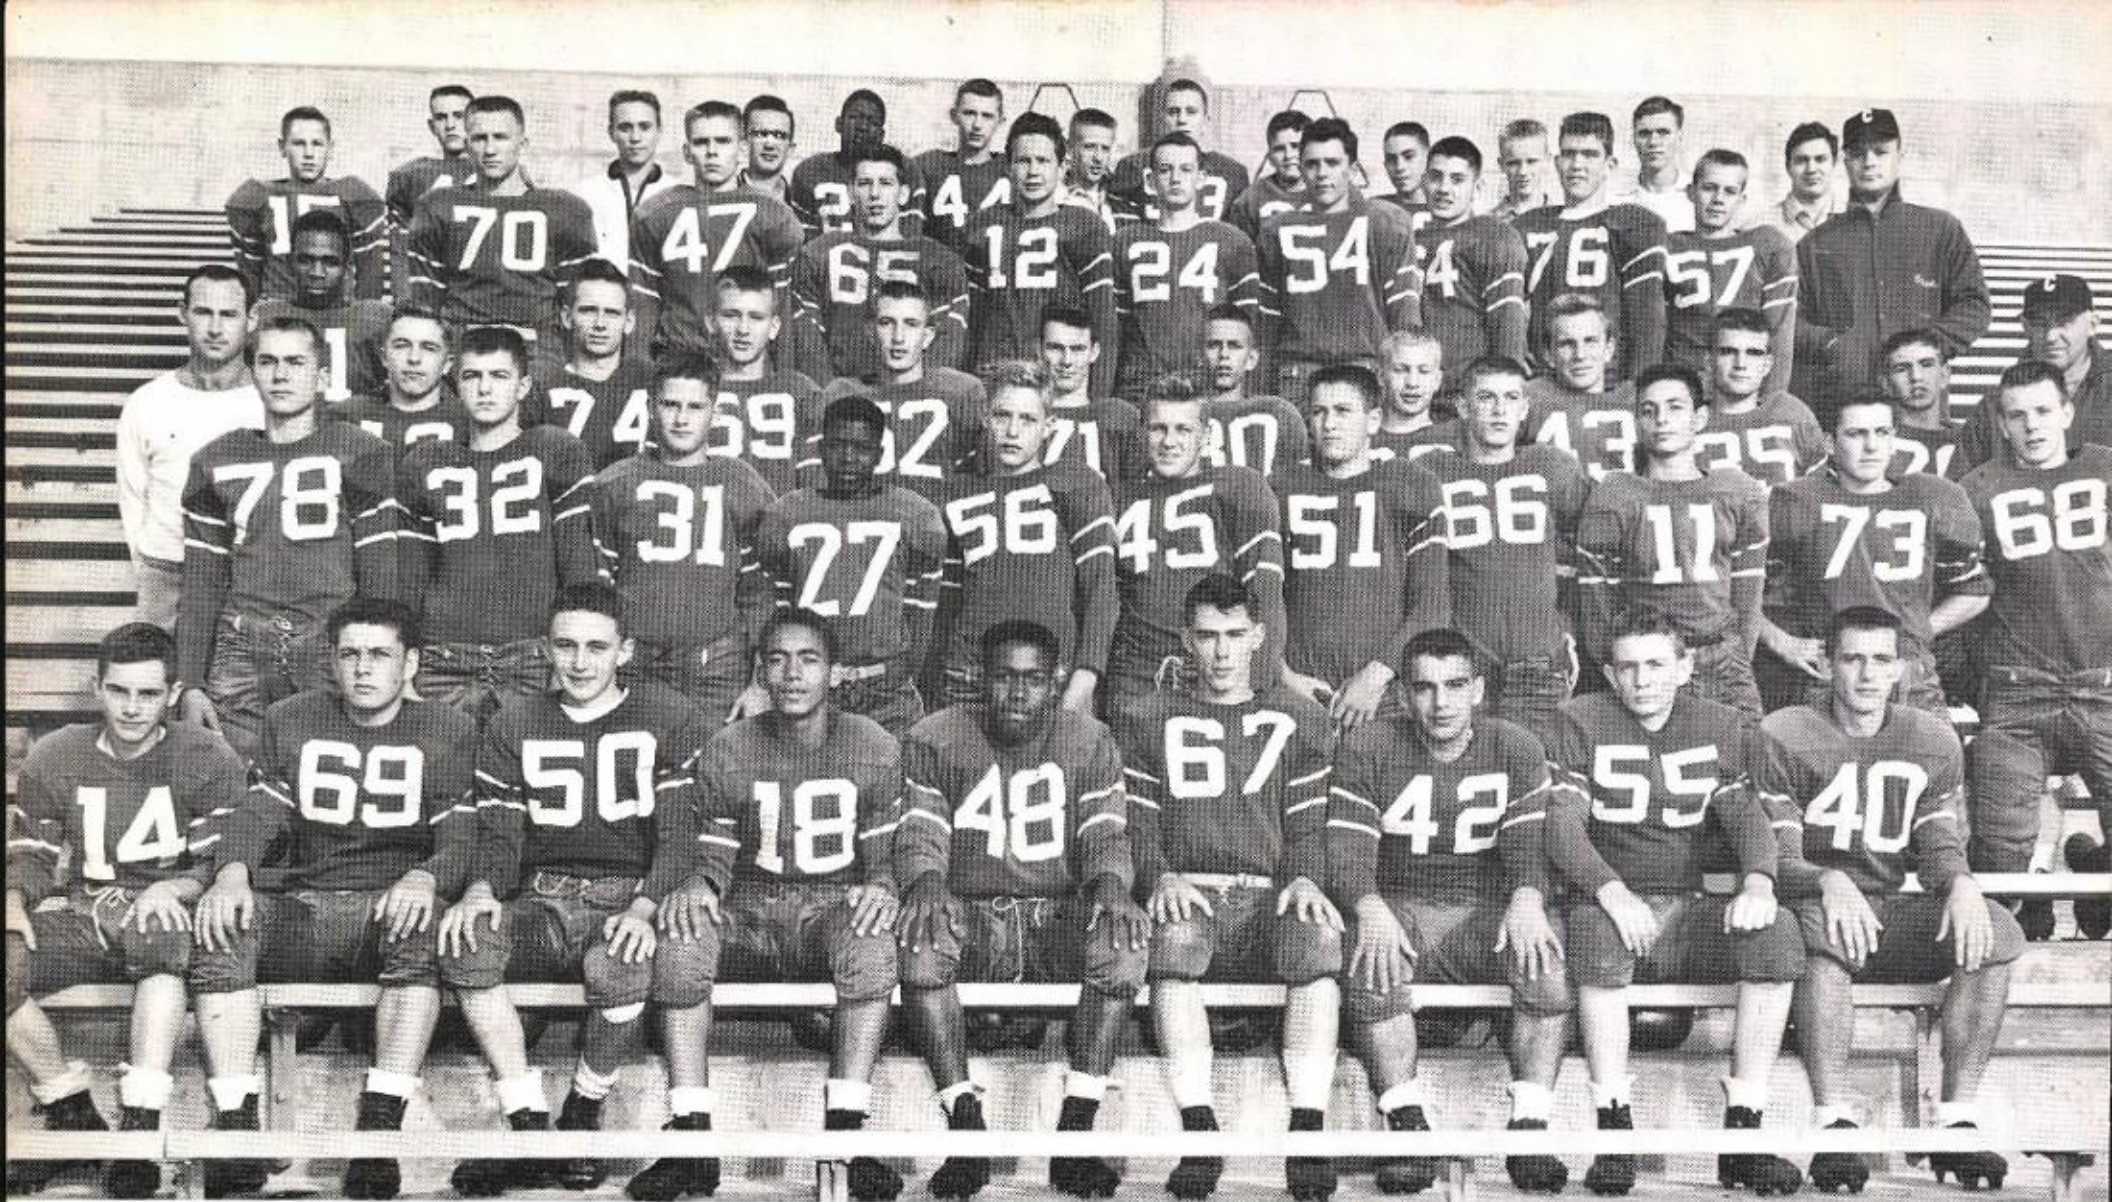

It was not the fortune of the Imps to rack up a spotless season, however, as they fell 13 to 0 in their next outing at Iowa City for their only setback of the campaign. With this behind them they rolled through their next three games on the schedule blanking Dubuque 35 to 0 and East Moline 34 to 0, and ruining Clinton's homecoming 40 to 14. Bob Beardsley's second extra point kick spelled the difference for the Blue Devils as they edged Moline 14 to 13 in the DHS old grad celebration the following weekend. Victories over Franklin of Cedar Rapids, 27 to 0 and 14 to 7, wound up the season's gridiron activity. Team play carried the Davenport representatives through their schedule in successful fashion. Backfield stalwarts included Bob Hebler, Mike Fenn, Mike Dardis, and Bob Sanders. All four received either state mentions or all-city recognition. Hebler gained third team all-state honors.

The Blue Devils' stellar line was led by All-Stater Vivan Ragusa. Others who sparked the drive of the forward wall included Bob Ihlefeld, Bob Garman, Bob Hain, Sam Bowlby, Al Cartee, Louie Black, Bill Brookstra, Joe Gomez, Fred Koester and Tom Murphy, many of whom also gained all-state mention or who placed on all-city squads. In addition senior lettermen, Dick Kreiter, John Micheel, Stan Miller, Andy Graaf and John Nickles ably backed up the starters.

Despite preseason pessimism by Coach Bob Williams, the sophomore football squad came through with a fine season, winning six games and losing only one. In the process, the yearlings copped the Quad-city and City championships. Bill Roberts, Ted Zeiner, and Don Wyatt spearheaded the Implet attack most of the year.

WRESTLING

Co-Captains Bob Ihlefeld and Vince Garcia present the state second place trophy to Mr. Berry. On the table from left to right are the other trophies which the team won throughout the year; District First Place, Quad-City, Davenport Invitational, Quadrangular, and MVC.

Arno Lafrenz has his arm raised in victory by the referee after pinning Jim Dennis of Rock Island. Dennis went on to become the 133 pound champion of Illinois.

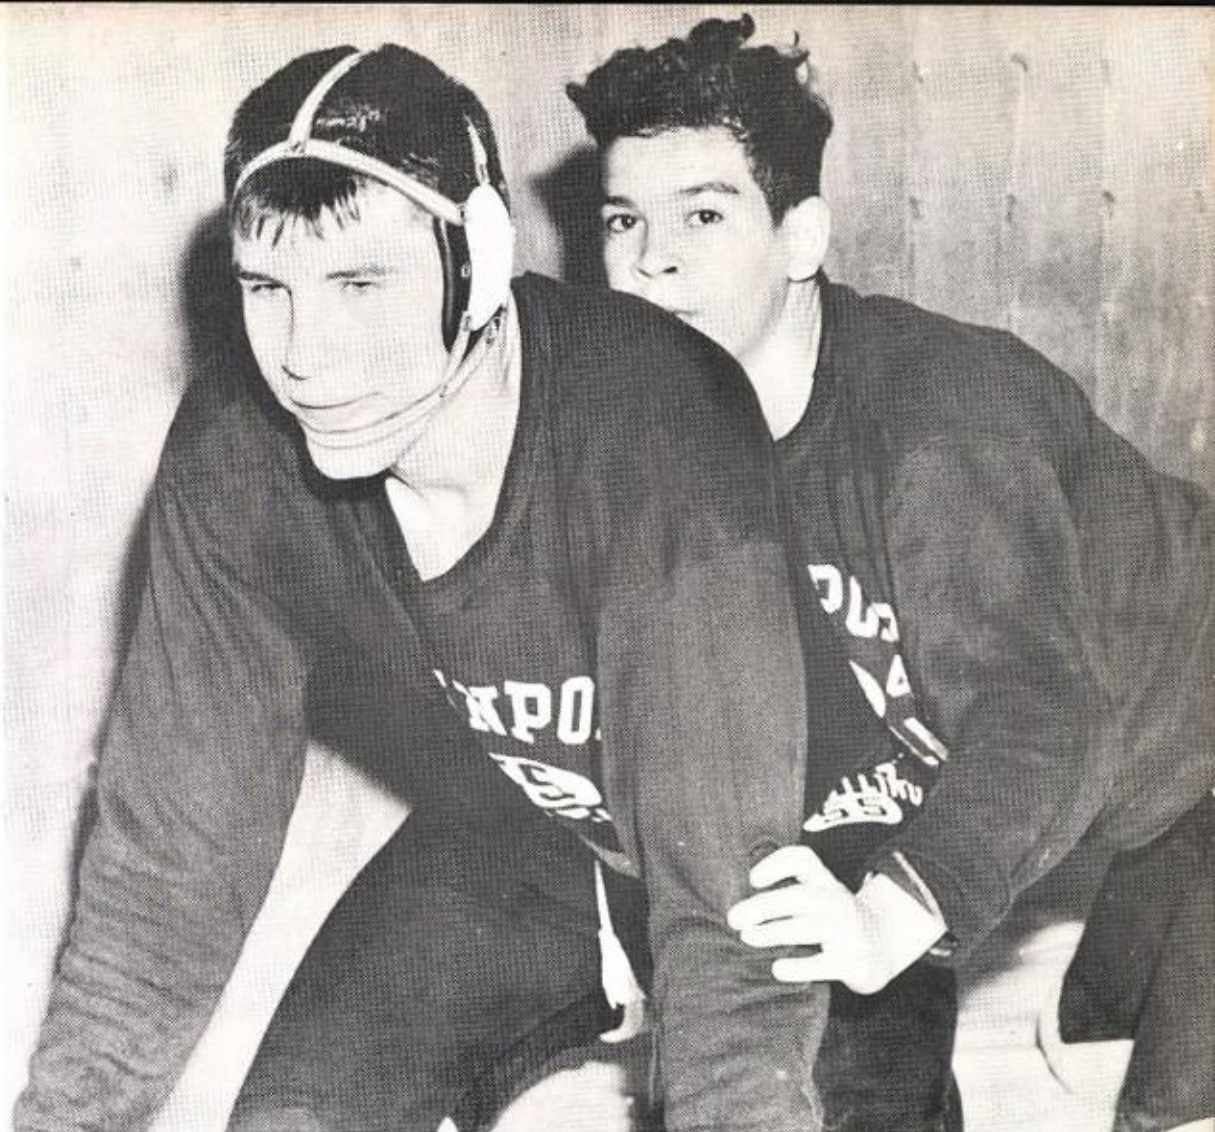

The Varsity Wrestling Squad

With eight members of last year's state championship team gone, wrestling coach Jim Fox and assistant coach Burt Seidler were faced with the task of rebuilding the squad. Vince Garcia, Bob Ihlefeld, and Morris Barnhill were the sole carry-overs from last season's first eleven, with Garcia and Ihlefeld being elected co-captains at the start of the campaign. Starting the year in fine fashion, the Imps won first place in the Davenport Quadrangular Meet. After polishing off Roosevelt in their next effort, 36-3, the Demons took first place in the Davenport Invitational Tournament, in which seven other teams, both from Illinois and Iowa, competed. A week later, the Blue Devils suffered their only defeat of the year, losing to West Waterloo, 27-13, the team that eventually won the state title. For eight dual meets following the loss to West, the Red and Blue couldn't be stopped. They walloped Iowa City 49-0, East Moline 49-3, and Franklin (C.R.), 37-6. In their next meet, against Clinton, the Imps encountered the only stiff opposition they were to run up against in the eight-meet skein. The River Kings lost a 20-19 decision to the Demons, who by then had established themselves as contenders for the state title. McKinley's Golden Bears were next on the Blue Devil's list, as Davenport racked up a 35-6 win over the Cedar Rapids outfit. In what was touted as a tournament preview, the Davenporters tangled with East Waterloo. If there was any doubt as to the Imp's worth, it was dispelled in this meet, as they tied with the northern crew, 19-19. East had been the only team to tie West Waterloo all season. Along the way Davenport added the usual Quad-City Conference and Mississippi Valley Conference titles to its laurels. In the district meet, ten out of the eleven Blue Devils who participated qualified for the state tourney, and, seven days later, Davenport closed out its season with a 32-3 defeat of Clinton.

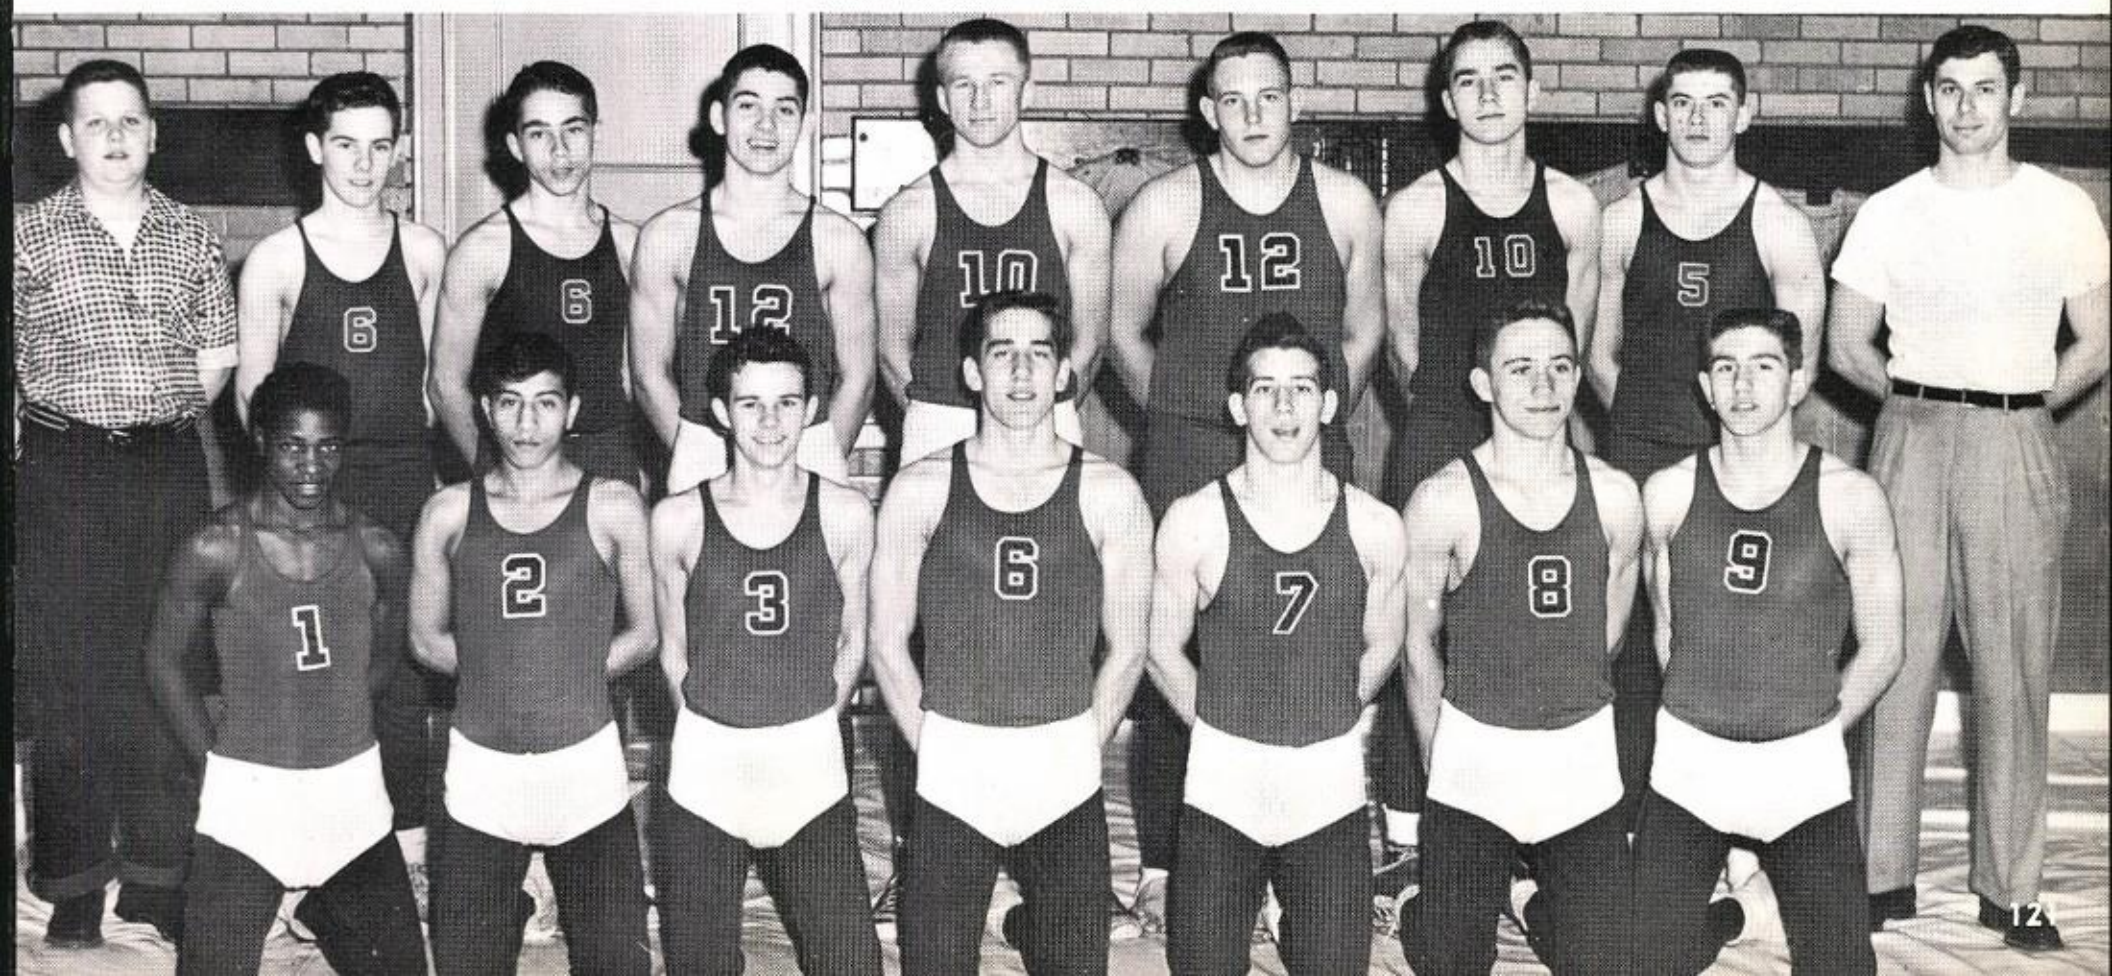

Blue Devil matman Bob Hain puts a press on his opponent in the heavyweight class during a meet with East Moline. The Davenport Demons mauled East Moline, 49-3.

The co-captains, Bob Ihlefeld and Vince Garcia, started out the season by showing the newer members of the squad some of the more elementary wrestling holds.

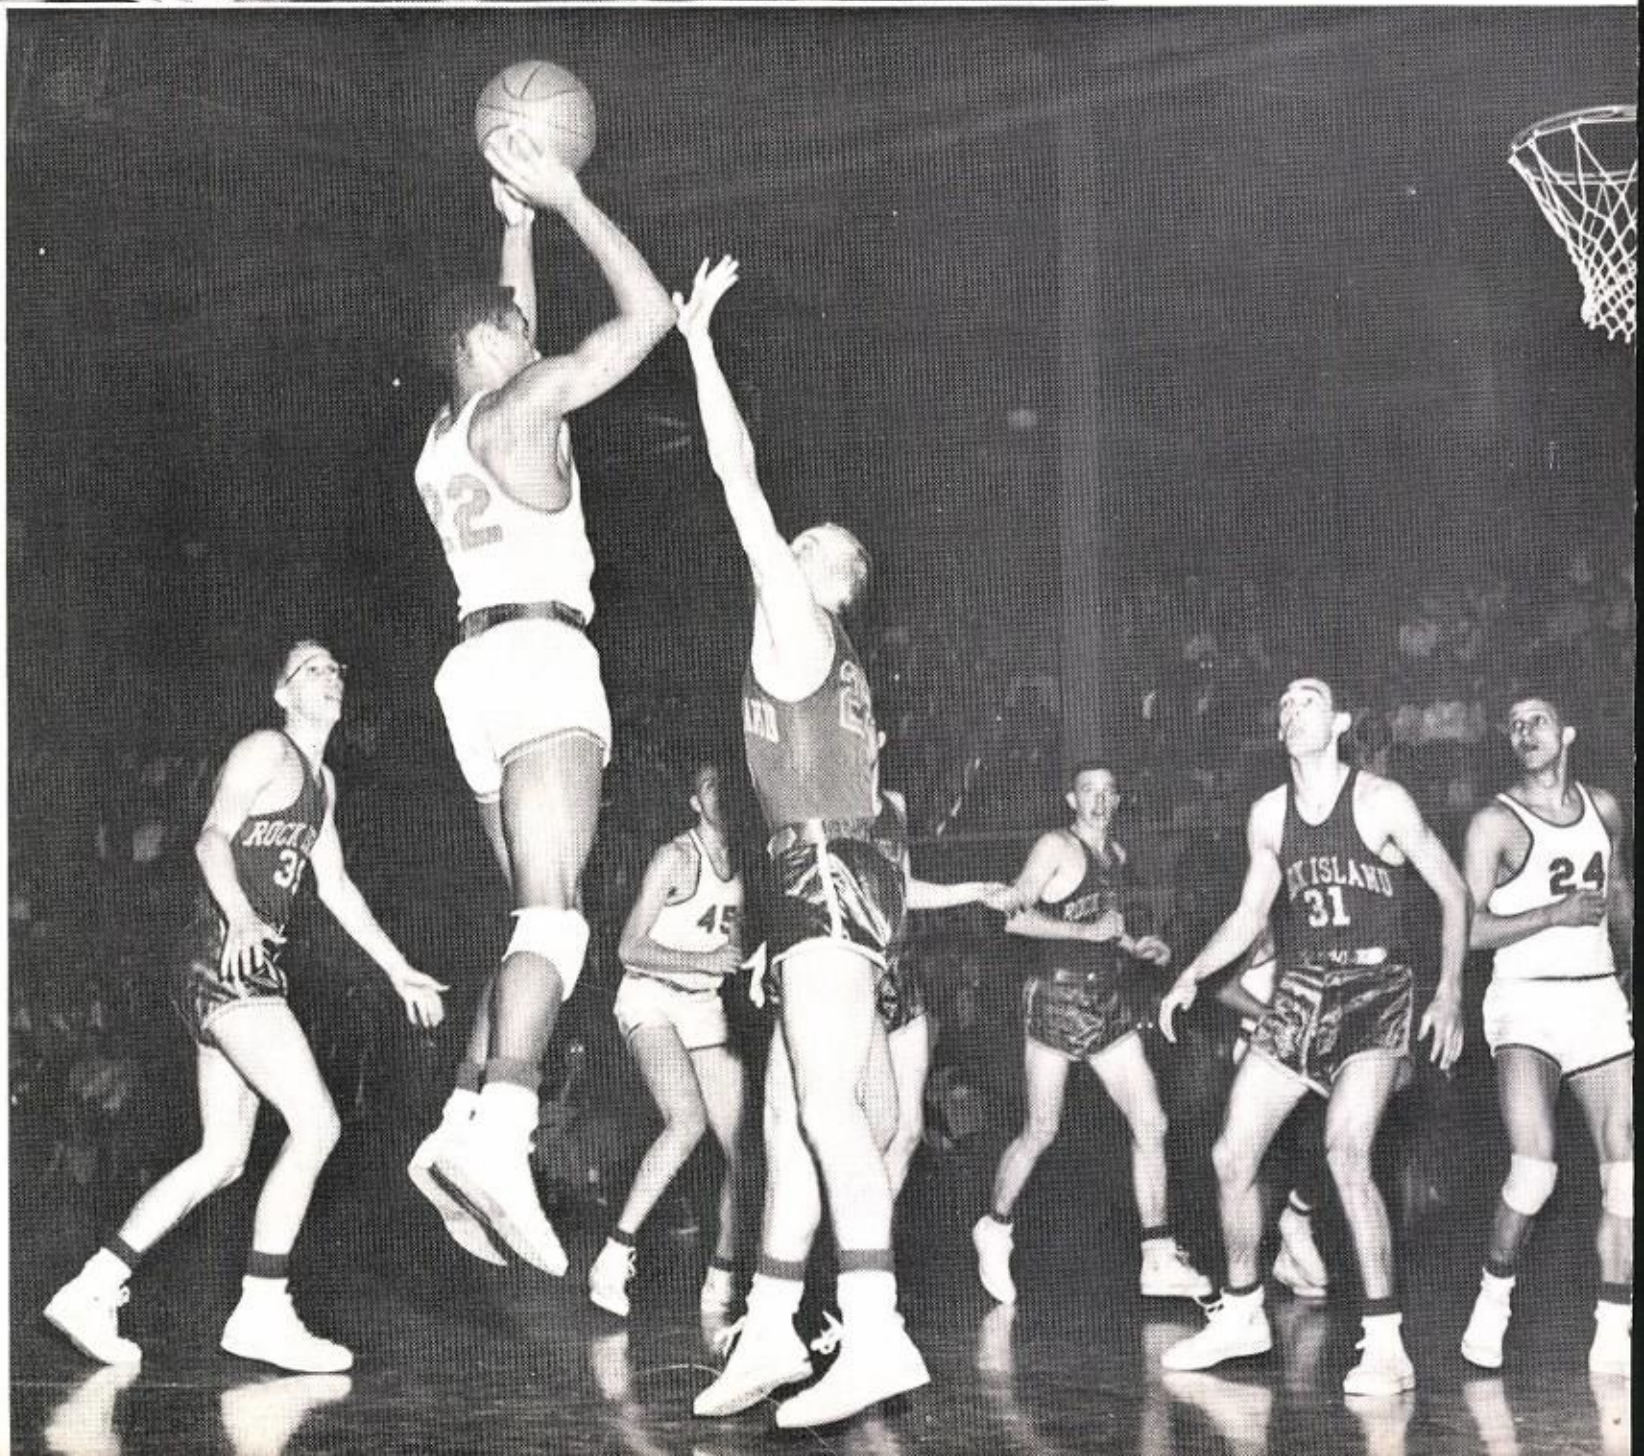

By the narrowest of margins, the Red and Blue missed doing a repeat on the state championship, 55-54. The Demons held a 22-20 edge going into the finals and had four wrestlers still in contention. Bob Hain, Bob Ihlefeld, Vince Garcia, and Jim Craig were the four who were bidding for championship honors. Garcia was defeated by Orlo Otteson of Osage, and Craig lost a heartbreaker to Jim Hoewison of Clarion, 3-2. Ihlefeld and Hain, however, survived to become state champions, the former at 154 pounds, and the latter at heavyweight. Hain won his laurels by virtue of a 2-1 win, while Ihlefeld pinned his man in 5:55 to win his twenty-fourth consecutive match of the year, and remain undefeated. Morris Barnhill picked up a third and Richard Foens a fourth in the consolation finals. Nineteen boys won varsity one year awards; Wayne Spahr, Tom Ramirez, Francis Freeman, Harold Duffield, Jerry Sturms, Dennis Smith, Clifford Stubbs, Bob Elliott, Bob Brunk, Wilbur Frahm, Ed Kauffman, Leonard Frauen, Larry Frauen, Jim Martens, Mike Bewley, Fred Welzenbach, Bob Garman, Dick Dunsworth, and Roy Simpson. Grapplers who gained letters for the second time were Dick Foens, George Wetsell, Jim Craig, Don Pfannenstiel, Jim Barton, Bob Leach, Arno Lafrenz, Tom Murphy, Jack Greenlee, and Bob Hain. Bob Ihlefeld, Vince Garcia, and Morris Barnhill won three year awards. Both the sophomore and reserve wrestling squads went undefeated again this season. The yearlings had a 10-0 record, while the reserves won eight, losing none. Coach Seidler's soph squads have lost only two meets since he took over in 1949. Jack Hill, Ron Borgstadt, Tom Choate, Jim Dixon, Tom King, and Bob Theer received reserve letters, while Jim Beck, Gary Fuller, John Miller, Ron Tuggeburg, Roger Waddell, John Curtis, and Jack Zuber won soph numerals. Larry Wolffe and Bill Young received manager awards.

Starting off the season in rather dubious fashion, the cagers lost a 51-37 decision to Keokuk but they bounced back to down McKinley, and upset Iowa City. After an 83-53 loss to East Moline, the Imps went on to win five out of their next seven contests before losing a return engagement to Iowa City. By far the most thrilling game of the regular season was played during this stretch. It was the Rock Island game, in which, with the score 50-50, Lee Frandsen was fouled as the final buzzer sounded, and sank his first free throw for the win. Following the loss to Iowa City, the Imps gained revenge against East Moline for the early season rout the Hilltoppers had scored, beating the Illinois quintet, 58-55. February 18 in Marshall Gym met Dubuque for the MVC title. The fact that the Imps had even gained the stature of contenders surprised the "experts," most of whom did not concede Davenport even a chance to finish in the first division. They were even more astounded when the Demons won the tilt, 68-62, to wear the crown for the seventeenth time in the school's history.

BASKETBALL

With all five of last year's starters gone, the basketball team, and new coach Paul Eckert, were faced with a rebuilding job as big as that of the wrestling team. Eckert, who was the sophomore coach at Centralia High School in Illinois, was picked to succeed Paul Moon, who retired last year. Coach Eckert introduced the man-to-man defense to DHS basketball, and also incorporated the extensive use of the jump shot in his offense. Having only two senior lettermen returning from the '53-'54 squad, he concentrated on developing his juniors, hoping to build a seasoned club for next season. As it turned out, those juniors carried the bulk of the scoring load, with Chuck Roberts, junior guard, making the third team of the IDPA all-state selections. Mike Fenn, senior, made Jack North's Des Moines Register & Tribune 4th all-state team.

Tom Keyoth shoots a hook shot over the heads of two Iowa City defenders as Sam Bowlby (34) and Ken Denger (partially obscured by 45 of I.C.) close in for the possible rebound.

Davenport dropped its next game, against Rock Island, but rebounded with a district tourney win over Clinton, 59-52.

The Imps wound up their regular season with a 60-58 victory against Muscatine. In the sub-state tournament, the Demons were knocked out in their first contest by upset-minded Wheatland, 61-59. Four seniors won letters this year, with Fenn and Jerry Block receiving two year awards, and Don Otto and Tom Keyoth receiving one year letters. With the emphasis on "youth" this year, six juniors won first year letters. They were Sam

Bowlby, Ken Denger, Lee Frandsen, Tom Hamilton, Chuck Roberts, and Kelvin Sidney. Rounding out the lineup of letter winners were sophs John Villinis and Bob Cassatt. Reserve awards went to Don Chalupa, Dick Kautz, Bob Lunardi, Dick Pohlmann, and John Sebolt, while Tom Fry, Gary Simpson, Dennis Dietz, and Jim

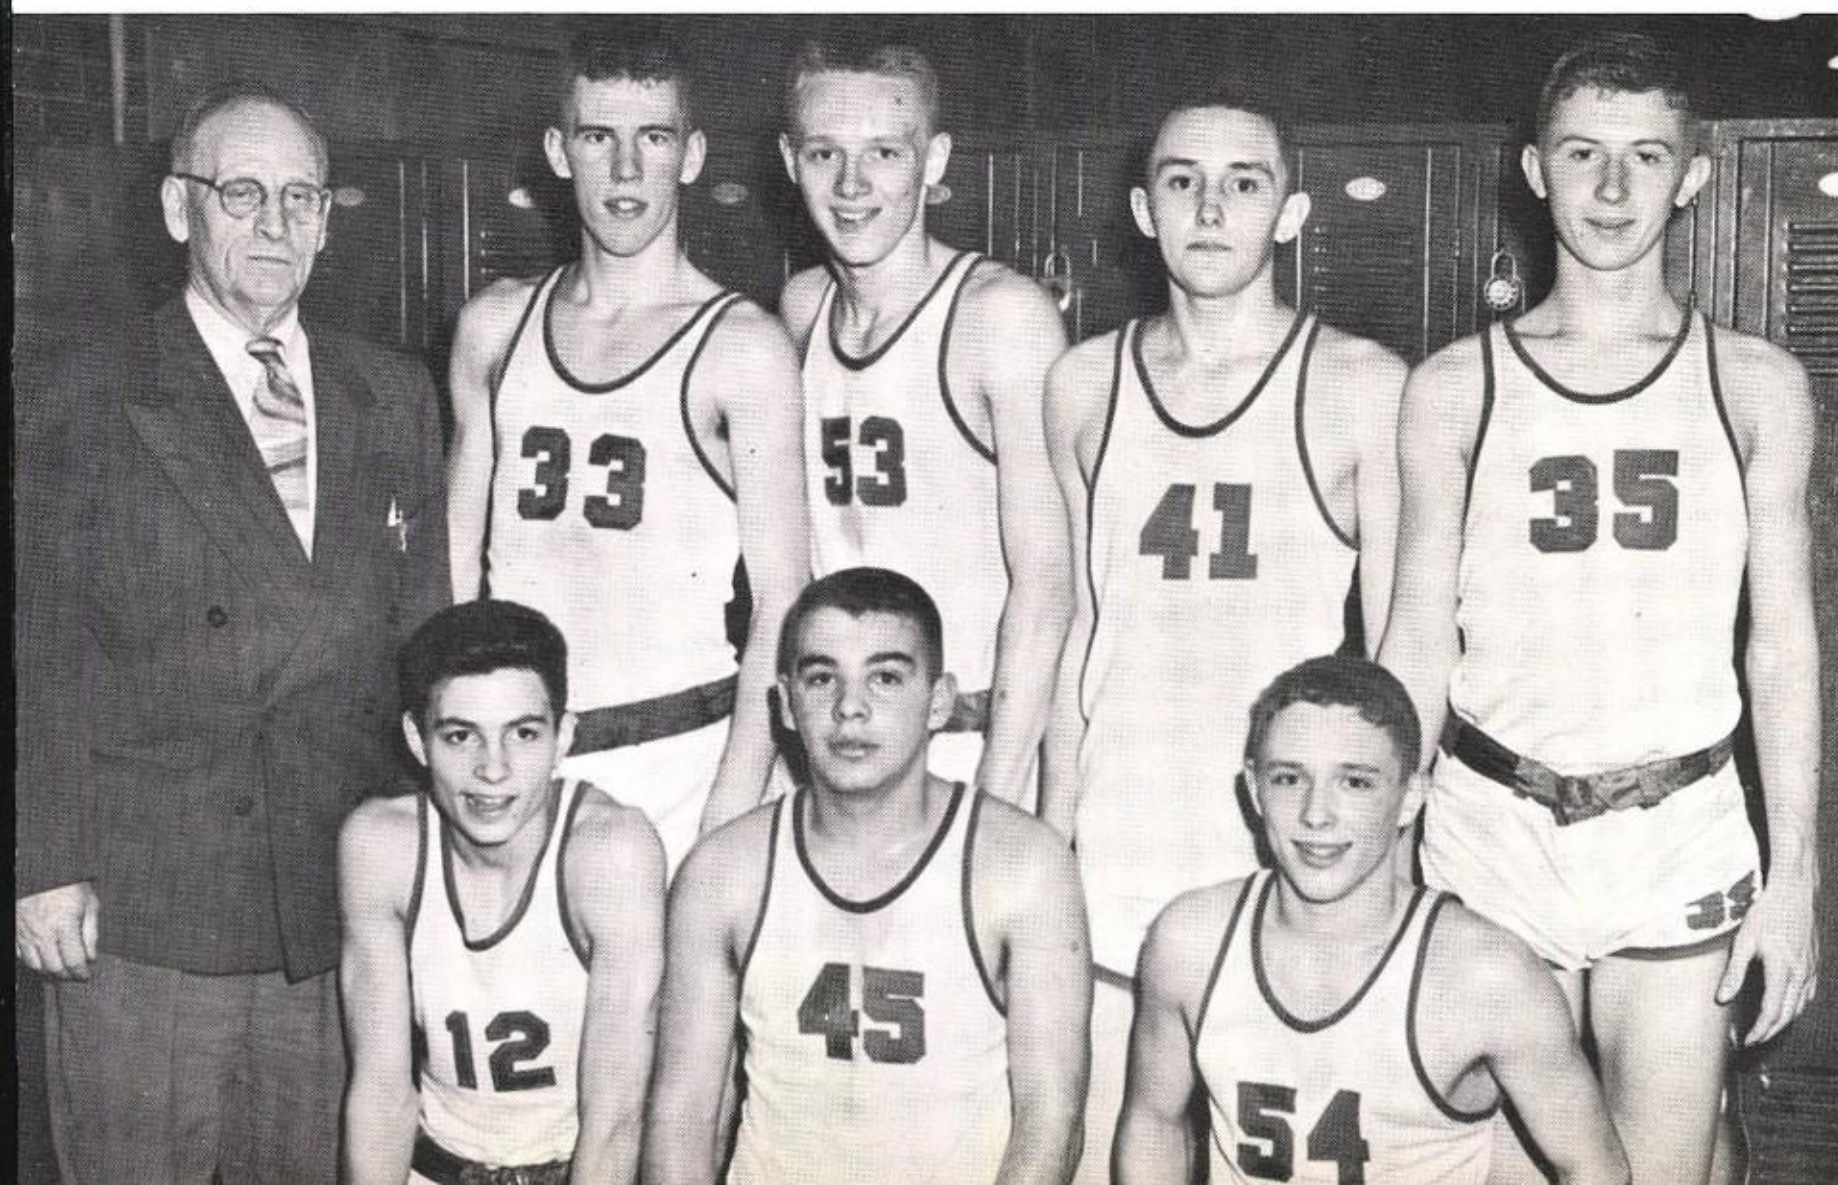

McPherson won manager awards. Coach Clem Bridge's sophomore team compiled a fine 9-1 record in MVC play to cop the league crown. A touch of humor was injected into the winning of the championship, as Bridge, whose soph teams have won the title with monotonous regularity, couldn't remember offhand whether it was his 22nd or 23rd league championship. The team's overall record was 13-6. The Junior Varsity cage team compiled a respectable record of seven wins and six losses. The JV's, or reserves, are coached by assistant coach, Paul Still.

Grabbing for the ball are John Villinis (41) and an All-State Clinton foe, Herb Marske (55), while Ken Denger (13) and his guard stand in open-mouthed amazement.

Up and over are hurdlers Ron McDermott, Mike Fenn and Dean Maas.

Inclement weather kept the track team from getting outside for practice until late in March. However, the squad began getting in shape on February 2, in preparation for their first meet, the MVC indoor. They did handsomely, copping first place, and finishing 46 points ahead of second place Clinton, 83-37. In their second effort of the season, they won fifth place in the State indoor meet, the highest ranking Eastern Iowa team.

In the MVC meet, the Demons copped eight first place finishes out of twelve events. Ron McDermott finished first in the high and low hurdles to lead the way. LeRoy Crawford took the first section of the 880 yard run, while the third Imp runner to win a first was Alex Stamos in the fifty yard dash. Dean Maas tied for first place in the high jump, with the fifth individual winner for Davenport being Gale Parks in the broad jump. The Blue Devils also came in first in the mile and 440 yard relays. In the state meet Crawford took third in the 880, Stamos and Barry Braack finished third and fourth respectively in the fifty yard dash, McDermott and Maas were fourth and fifth in the high hurdles, Stanton came in fifth in the 440, Parks won third place in the broad jump and tied for third in the pole vault, and Dave Henschen was third in the high jump and fifth in the shot put.

After seeing his team in action twice, Coach Day felt that this year's performance would see a definite improvement over that of the '54 squad. Senior letter winners who returned from last year were Ralph Boden, Mike Fenn, Arno Lafrenz, John Micheel, Chuck Holman, Fred Feidler, Parks and Crawford. Crawford and Fenn were the year's co-captains.

Warming up, Gary Stanton, Lee Crawford, Terry Tingwald and Charles Leptien run a lap across the field.

The 1955 DHS Baseball Team

BASEBALL

After seeing his charges knock off Moline, 10-6, and St. Ambrose, 4-0, in their first contests, coach Doug Atkins was somewhat optimistic as to his club's possibilities for the year. Atkins felt that this year's team was as good defensively and better offensively than last year's. The Moline game bore out his statement, as all but two of the Imps who played collected hits. The Blue Devils hit safely fifteen times in garnering their ten runs. Against the Knights, Roger Jordan turned in a fine 3 hit performance with St. Ambrose contributing four errors to the Demon cause. Seniors who figured prominently in the Blue Devils' plans as the season got under way were pitchers Roger Jordan, Dale Natzke, Lou Black; infielders Dick Likeness, Lou Shirlaw, Dick Kay and Jerry Block; and outfielders Harry Radeke, Nade Wiese and Stan Miller. Rounding out the squad were juniors Earl Osterberg, Tom Hamilton, Dick McKee, Bob Garman, Bob Lunardi, Kelvin Sidney, Al Cartee, Larry Lambert, and Ken Denger.

Bob Martin, Dick Munro, and Willis Hogan also figured prominently in the Imp link action.

The boy's tennis team:
First Row: Bill Hawkins, Ed Brody, Jim Wallace, Dave Ilten, Jim Hussett.
Second Row: John Thomas, Bob Curnan, Don Peteet, Jim Davis, Don Moeller, and Roger Shafer.

TENNIS

Without a single letterman returning from last year, the DHS tennis team did not figure to win many matches this season.

Coach Paul Moon felt, however, that the campaign would afford valuable experience to the six sophomores and one junior who comprised the bulk of the '55 squad. Bob Curnan, Ed Brody, Jim Davis, Bill Hawkins and Dave Buhl, all sophs, showed a lot of promise as the season got under way. With them as a nucleus in '55-'56, the team's fortunes will probably be better next year. In addition to the five players already mentioned, Dave Ilten, Roger Shafer, Don Peteet, Jim Hussett, and John Thomas participated in the net sport. The girls' fall tennis team improved over last year's team with the girls taking 2nd place in the Quad-City tennis meet September 25.

Nine old members returned to strengthen the team's five new members. The spring team faced their usual rugged schedule under the direction of Mrs. Rena Driggs, coach. Through this program, sportsmanship has improved among the girls of the Quad-City area. The East Moline and Davenport team members have a picnic each year.

The girls' tennis team:
 Carol Lester, Brenda Nye, Barbara Buchwalter, Anne Strieter, Maxine Rock, Sandy Nelson, Virginia Underwood, Charmaine Coghill, Mineda McCleave.
 Standing is Mrs. Rena Driggs, coach.

RIFLE

The ROTC Rifle Team under the supervision of M/Sgt Donald Bush competed with, among others, the William Randolph Hearst rifle team, other ROTC unit teams, and entered in the Fifth Army Interscholastic matches, in shoulder-to-shoulder and postal matches. The best marksmen in the ROTC Battalion are eligible for membership in this organization. Jacques Andre captained the team. This year's National Rifle Association team was made up of fifty members, both boys and girls. Membership was open to any interested student attending DHS. Members competed in two matches against Burlington, Vermont and also the NRA National match. In this National match, each school team was given a rating and the first ten teams received medals. Each member received a rating from among the 3000 individual entries. An Inter-Club match was held late in the year, in which medals were given to the high scoring boy, girl and team. Club officers were Jacques Andre, president; Phil Fleming, vice-president; Kay Milligan, secretary; Pat Adair, treasurer; and Howard Goettsch, executive officer. Sgt. Roger Hicks was the club advisor and instructor.

BOYS' INTRAMURALS

The Intramural Basketball Championship Team: Front Row: Earl Owens, Leo Jipp,
 and Dick Hennings. Back Row: Ron Hoefeldt, Bill Brookstra, Captain Jerry Ralfs and Dan Dablin.

Under the direction of Burt Seidler and Jim Fox, the Davenport High boy's intramural set-up is one of the largest and most complete in the Midwest. It encompasses both team and individual sports and affords an opportunity for athletic achievement to more than 400 DHS boys. Starting off the intramural program for the year, thirteen teams, including both the Junior-Senior and Sophomore leagues, vied for touch football honors. Danny White's team copped the title in the Junior-Senior league, while Gale Parks' squad took the laurels in the Soph division. White won the school championship in a playoff against Parks. During the winter, wrestling and basketball took over with 70 boys participating in the mat sport, and almost 250 players on 24 teams engaging in cage activity. Jerry Ralfs' team won the Junior-Senior loop crown, going undefeated in thirteen contests, and Conrad McWilliams' team took the Soph Championship. Ralfs defeated McWilliams for the school title. In volleyball, 20 teams participated. Competition in horseshoes, ping-pong, badminton, handball, track and field, and softball in the spring wound up the year's activities.

An unsuccessful spike sends the opposing team into frenzied action. Team spirit and friendly rivalry reach a high point in intramural championship games. Apply the old adage, "May the best team win." Which is the best?

GIRLS' INTRAMURALS

It takes a light and easy touch to play badminton, but, ask any of these girls,
and they'll tell you they love the game.

Davenport High's girls' intramural program, directed by Miss Marge Holderness and Mrs. Rena Driggs, ranges over as many sports as does the boys' program. Starting off in the fall, the girls engaged in field hockey and archery. During the winter, 90 girls on various teams competed in basketball and volleyball. With the coming of spring, golf, softball, table tennis, badminton, shuffleboard, aerial darts, deck tennis and tether ball took over. Bowling, which was carried on during the winter, was, in the opinion of Miss Holderness and Mrs. Driggs, the most successful activity. Seventy-eight girls actively participated in two leagues. Medals were awarded to the girls who ran up the highest single game total, the highest total over the whole season, and to the members of the teams that amassed the best over-all point totals. Pat Morris scored the highest single game total for the one league, with Maxine Stuhr taking honors in the other. Marking up the highest season's point total were Judy Mohr and Shirley Rosenboom. The best team performance was turned in by Shirley Albers' team for the first league and Phyllis Border's for the second. In the free throw tournament held during the basketball season, Ruby Stratton copped the championship with second place honors going to Mary Jo Rose.

Filling in the score sheets are these members of the bowling league.
Seated: Phyllis Brus, Marianne Puck and Carol Blueborn. Standing: Wilda Bannister and Deanna Brockmann. Both experienced and amateur bowlers participated in the program.

ET CETERA

'Tis the little, seemingly insignificant events that make DHS so much like home . . . the lovable people here . . .
 classroom activities . . . on the subject and off . . . experiments
 . . . discussions . . . auds . . . oh, those auds
 . . . everyone's a good sport
 . . . backstage work, worry, and wonder . . .

 cheerleaders . . . all the details in themselves not so important,
 but together . . . they make DHS wonderful . . .

SWISS STUDENT

Walking toward the main building are Dick Krieter and Simon Wehrli. Si took an active part in DHS life and even added his talents to the track team. He wasn't completely Americanized, though. Note Swiss watch.

Financing a year at DHS for a lucky (we hope) foreign student has been a joint project of Tri-Y, Hi-Y and the student body. Plans for this first venture into the foreign field were begun in 1954 and then extended into the Co-ed Carnival, the Hi-Y car-wash, and the sale of Christmas tree tickets to raise the necessary revenue of approximately $700. Through the American Field Service, a student in Switzerland was located, "processed" and finally delivered in September of '54. He, Simon Wehrli, resided with DHS'er Dick Kreiter during his year in Davenport. Here he has lived the active life of any high school fellow, and has, in turn, left his mark upon the students: A great majority of the latter could easily point out Switzerland on a map and even inject some information on the subject. During his short year at DHS, "Si" has seen a true picture of American life, has experienced commonplace events and met countless people. We hope that when he returns to his home he will be able to share with his family and friends what he has gained with us, and that we too have benefited from the student plan.

Dinner with the Krieters! Simon celebrated Thanksgiving in this country with the Krieter family and good ol' Tom Turkey. Mmmm, looks good.

AT DHS

*Heber, it sure was lots of fun in
Am. Govt.
lots of luck for all you do
Li*

"Hurry up, fellas . . . he wants it simonized too!" Hard at work cleaning off dust and dirt are Bill Walker and Chuck Herring, typical of several Hi-Y boys, who worked by washing cars to add to the foreign student fund.

Committees were responsible for the success of the Co-ed Carnival which contributed a sizable sum toward the fund. This look into the meeting of the committee shows the orderly way in which it operates. No wonder a lot is accomplished!

Mike Dardis, general chairman for Career Day, finally gets a chance to sit down . . . pretty big desk, too! Mike is shown visiting the office of a local lawyer who happens to be giving him some tips on the profession — no fee.

SENIOR CAREER DAY

Engaging in an activity as extensive as the DHS Senior Career Day is a more than admirable project for most schools, but DHS is unique in one respect in this undertaking: it is the largest high school to attempt such a vast project. Career

Day gives the seniors an opportunity to obtain an insight into the field of work they plan to enter. Their visit gives them a first hand experience and information no book could offer. The 1955

Career Day, April 27, opened with an address by a top-notch guest speaker, and a panel discussion in which DHS students participated.

Two periods of conferences followed. Seniors had a wide range of occupations from which to make their conference choices. In the afternoon, they were actually guests in the offices of industries they selected.

Sixty-nine occupational fields were available for visitation. Almost all of the seniors served on committees along with many teachers to prepare for the day. Mike Dardis had the prodigious job of student chairman. Reactions to the event were unanimously in favor, and all enjoyed the day immensely.

Going over last minute details in this huddle are committee chairmen Shirley Baxter, Betty Lou Voehl and Barb Culp.

On the job observation proved the highlight of the day. Leona Bishop gets a first hand account of the workings of a telephone exchange.

Glancing over publicity in the latest issue of the Blackhawk are Miss Pauline Cotter and John Ronnebeck, in charge of Career Day's publicity.

Miss Hortense Finch, English literature and sophomore English instructor and Head of the Language Arts Department, smiles as one of her students contributes an amusing anecdote.

*Best Wishes!
Sincerely,
Mrs. Still*

Mrs. Bessie Thoensen, affectionately known as "Ma Bess," tallies reports between accompanying on the piano calisthenics for the girls' gym classes.

Best of everything to a swell girl - "Ma Bess"

Accompanying vocal music classes is Mrs. Paul Still's capacity as a member of the DHS staff.

Roger Shafer Have lots of fun in college.

Graduating seniors Roger Shafer, Ann Comer, Leon Schwartz, and Don Mardis, who came to DHS too late to meet the senior picture deadline, pause in their studies to smile for the photographer.

Typing students diligently work on their assignments under the direction of Miss Taylor, typing instructor.

Mrs. Milota, substitute teacher who replaced Miss Finch for seven weeks during the latter's leave of absence and finished the year for Mrs. Danner, home economics teacher, and Mr. Ray Van Hennick, graphic arts instructor, who replaced Mrs. Cole, glance through a 1954 Blackhawk Yearbook.

Surrounding one of the school buses are student drivers Darwin Suhr, Norbert Albrecht, Daniel Nagle, Tom Barnet, Chester Hintz, and Chuck Kuehl.

Mr. Atkins admonishes his class consisting of Miss Carr, Mr. Marston, Mr. Williams, and Miss Ehlers, while rehearsing for a skit which was presented in an aud celebrating 50 years at DHS.

Giving their interpretation of several old time favorites is the faculty quartet consisting of Mr. Carr, Mr. Anderson, Mr. Haack, and Mr. Hempstead.

Debate constituted a good six weeks' work in beginning public speaking. Brenda Nye practices her techniques on Mr. McGee's first period class.

*Helen,
Best of luck in the future.

*Helen -

Performing experiments is a major part of physics. Chuck Geisewite, Roy Fluhrer and Kent Johnson make their calculations as the rest of the class watches intently.

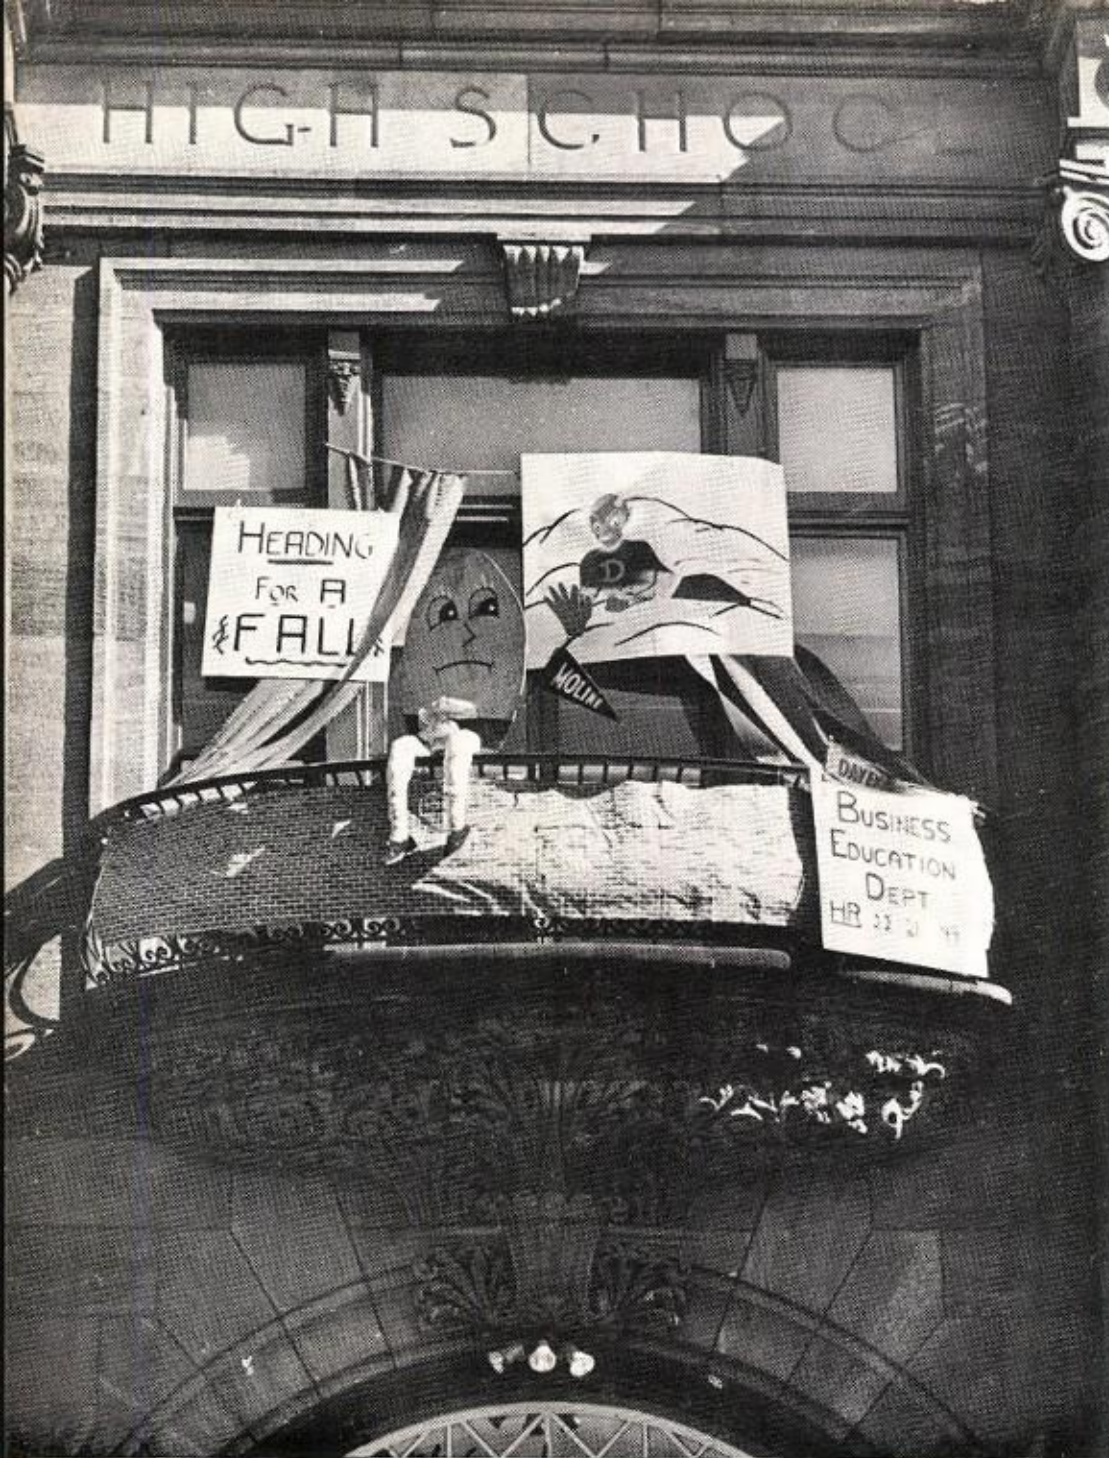

Engrossed English literature students listen attentively as Miss Finch lectures on John Milton.

Decapodes are the subject of today's lecture by Miss Shinn, biology teacher.

Homecoming displays are almost as much a part of the Homecoming festivities as the game, the queen, or the dance.

This Humpty-Dumpty display erected by homerooms 21, 22, and 44, won first place in the outside division.

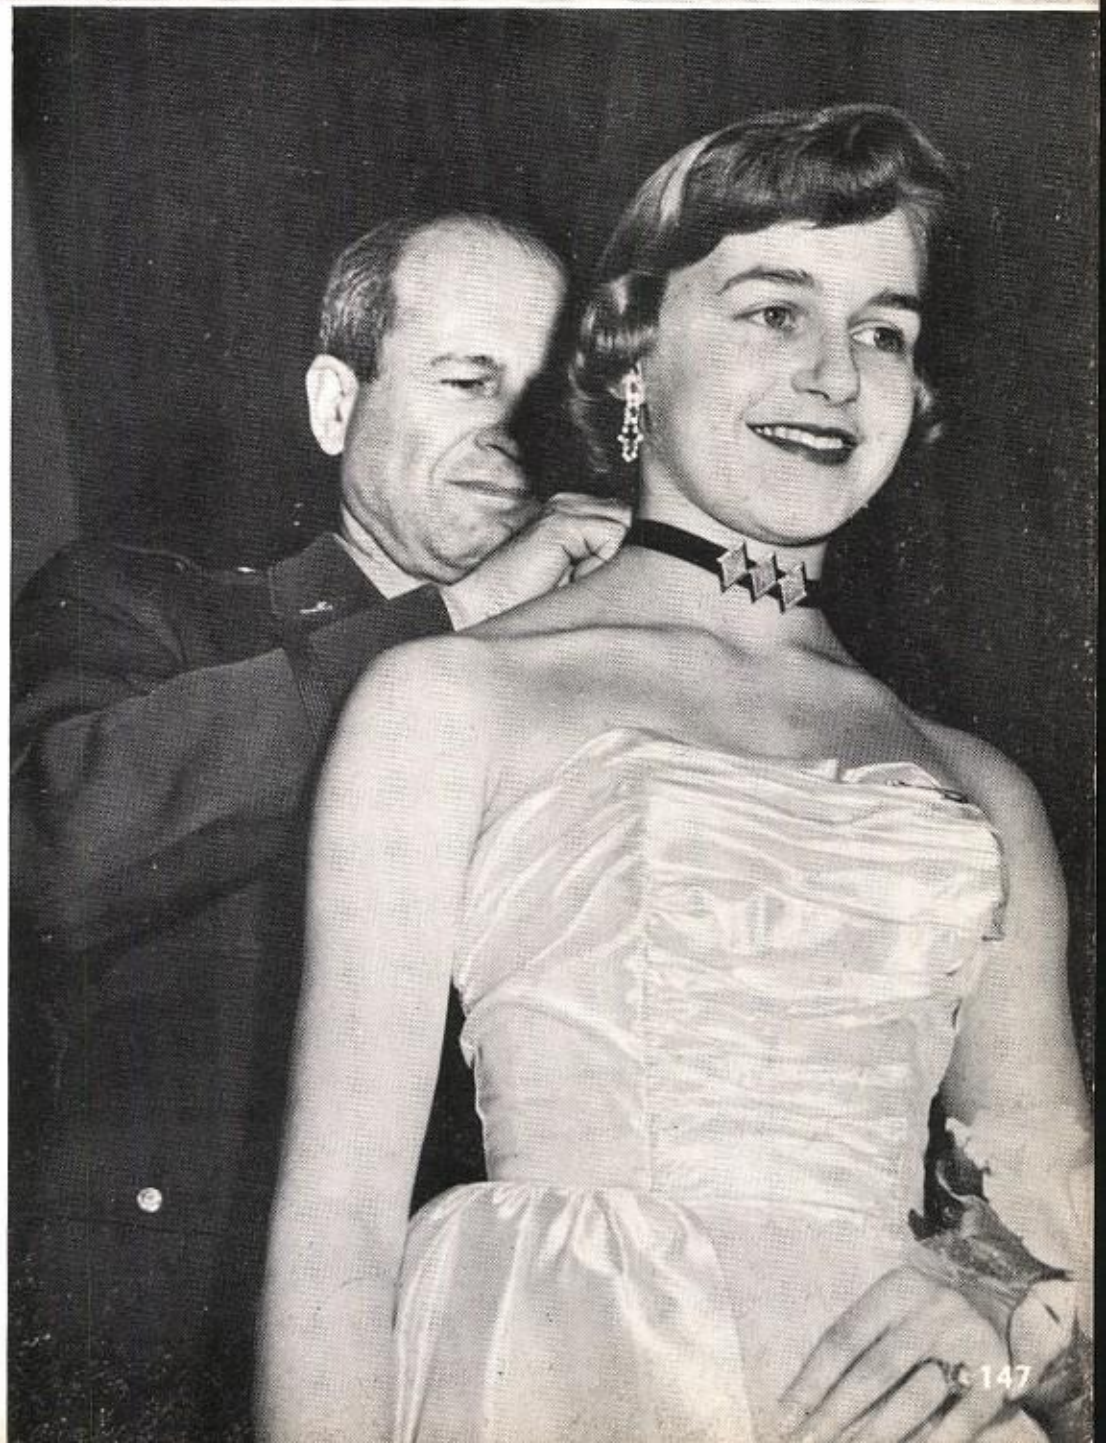

Enjoying a backstage snack during a rehearsal of the all School Play, "Harvey," are George Coronel, Jim Dalzell, Nolan McCaulley, and Dick Rosche.

Major McCardell jokes with Honorary Cadet Colonel Janet Fidler and Honorary Cadet Majors Barb Bowers and Joan Pavel before they were presented at the Military Ball.

Janet Fidler is commissioned Honorary Cadet Colonel of the 1955 Annual Military Ball.

Happily discussing plans for the junior class are the officers Bob Beardsley, treasurer; Barb Hafford, vice-president; Chuck Roberts, president; and Mary Jo Rose, secretary.

The chairmen of various committees for the junior class party met together to make plans. Pictured are Dave Ilten, decorations; Nadine Latimer, courtesy; Virgil Arp, clean-up; Kenlyn Wells and Herb Hamsher, general co-chairmen; and Tom Hamilton, tickets.

"Springtime in Paris," the theme of this year's junior class party, was proclaimed a great success. Responsible for the planning are Jim Dalzell, Barb Hafford, Lynn Brubaker, Joyce Lund, Nan Erickson, and Bob Beardsley.

Lines have always been a part of any high school. Here students go through the lunch line at noon.

Mrs. Lafrenz collects final payments for yearbooks from students who bought on the installment plan.

The Varsity Cheerleaders smile prettily for the photographer. These girls, Jo Nelson, Marian Hastings, Marsha Rose, Mary Jo Rose, and Jackie Lindahl, really put in a lot of time and effort before and after school hours.

To Helen:
one of the best friends
I've had during my soph. & jr. years. Glad you finally made it.
(-ha-) Best luck,
Janie Dawes

The Sophomore Cheerleaders, from bottom to top, Janie Dawes, Jill Dickenson, Carol Heeschen, Carole Sothmann, and Cindy Cracker, worked hard in practicing their cheers for the sophomore games.

What's the first thing you notice in this picture?
 Why Bob Beardsley's bandaged cauliflower ear, of course!
 Maybe he thought the McGuire Sisters' dressing room was the doctor's office. At any rate, he doesn't look like he's suffering too much!
 The McGuire Sisters were interviewed by DHSers when they appeared at the Rock Island Armory Auto Show in January.

Carol Heeschen and Barb Hafford, members of the Blackhawk Newspaper reporting staff, interviewed Ralph Marterie and the "Crew Cuts" when they appeared in Davenport. Carol and Barb are pictured backstage as they questioned Marterie, the famous bandleader.

This is chivalry? Well, there's a reason why these gallant "knights" are watching. Changing tires is one of the more difficult skills taught Jody Naeckel, Andrea Cole and Dick Foland by Mr. Haack; so, you see, this is out-of-classroom instruction.

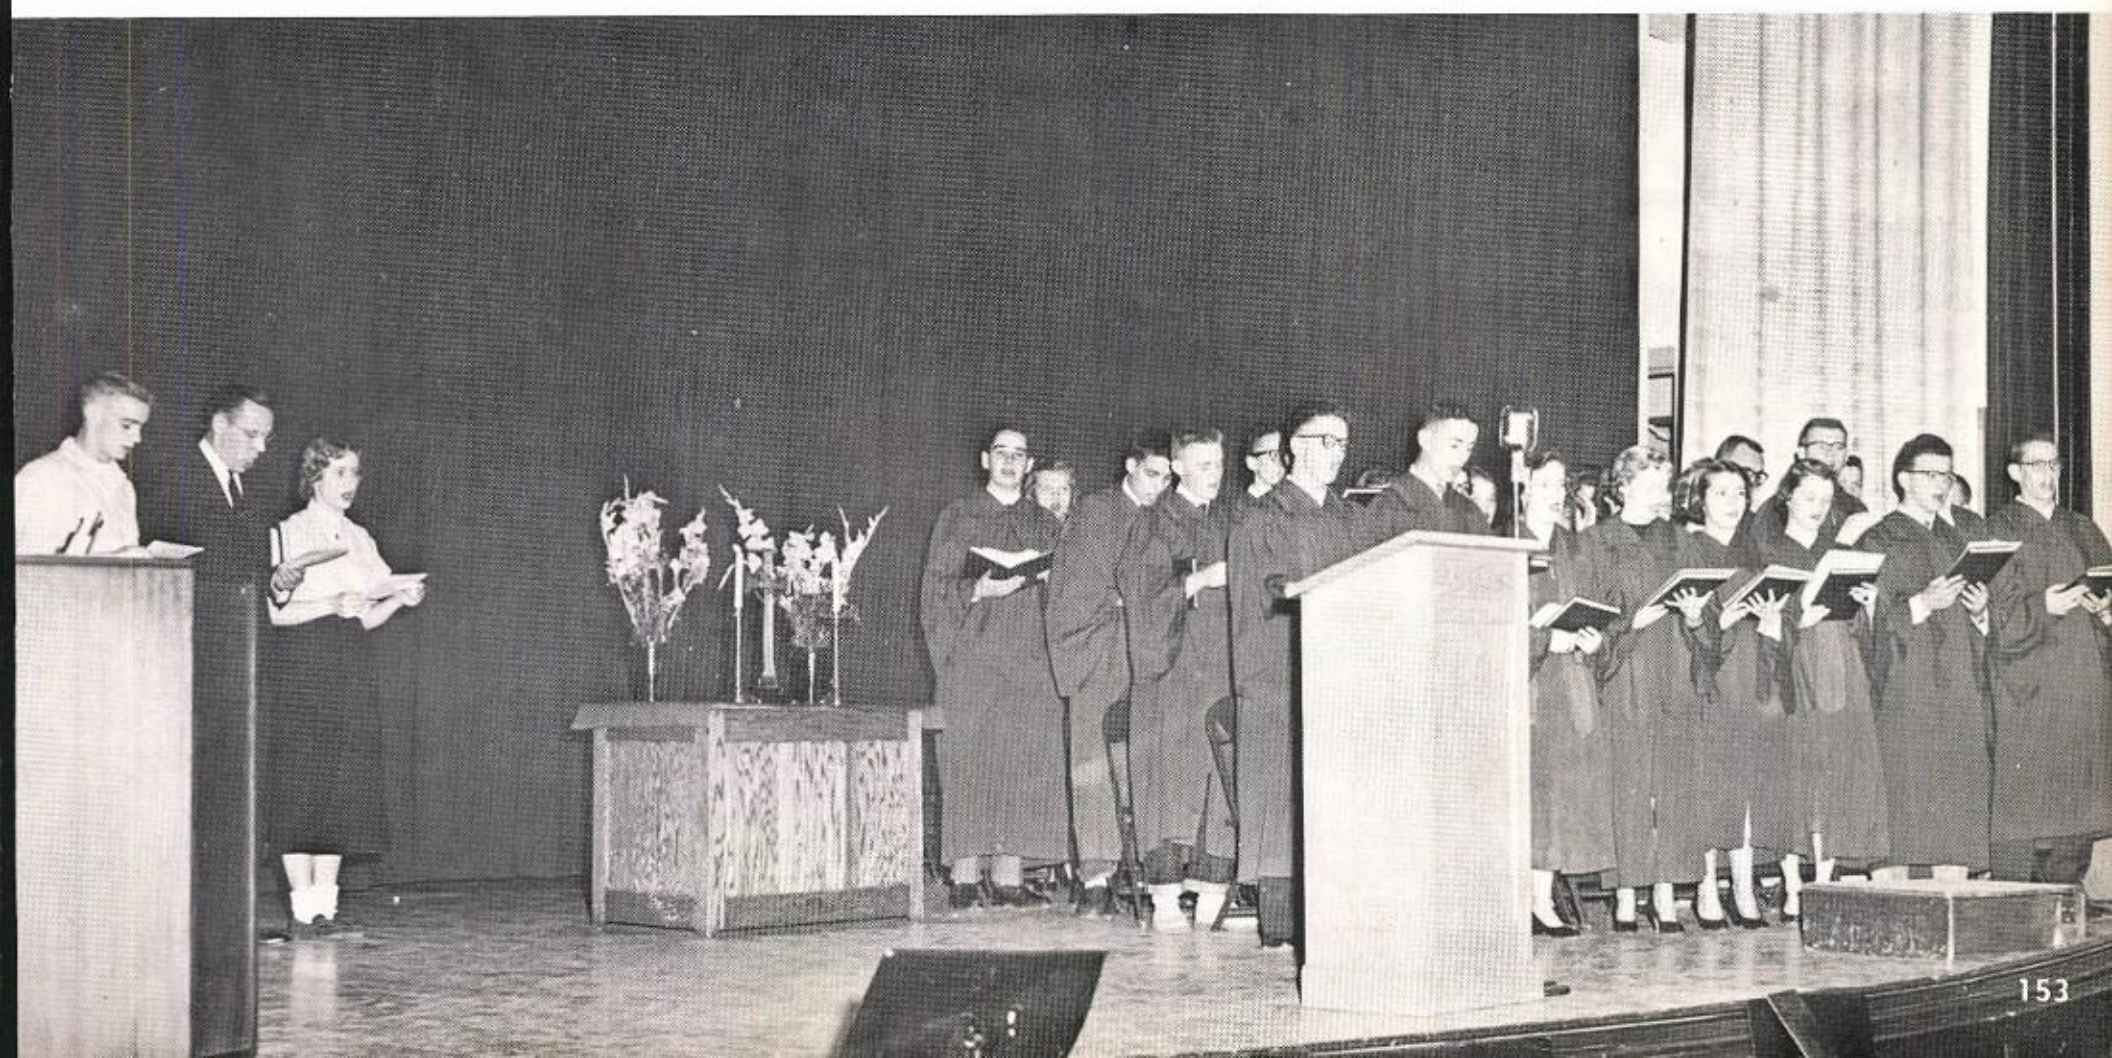

Completely absorbed in his music, Mr. Mortiboy conducts the DHS band at the Mid-West music clinic held in Chicago.

Discussing final Holy Week services and plans are the committee chairmen.
Seated: Lynn Brubaker, Bill Brookstra and Connie Hurt.
Standing: Bev Wendhausen, Joan Pavel, Kenlyn Wells, Steve Fersch and Jo Ann Hansen.

Hymn singing was a vital part of the traditional Holy Week services planned and presented by Hi-Y and Tri-Y.

Shopping for formals for the Senior-Junior Prom is half the fun of going say Mary Ann Bindewald and Kay Still as they admire one of the new short formals.

Dick Johannesen, Chuck Herring, Lee Crawford and Sandy Fleming, chairmen of spring events pause during a meeting to pose for the camera.

This picture might be entitled, "Davenport on the Mississippi."

This impressive skyline, as seen from the Illinois shore, distinctly shows the Davenport High School building (see arrow).

Jack Albrecht puts a little humor into a discussion during a meeting of the chairmen of senior events for the end of the year. Chairmen are Sally Hartman, Barry Braack, Carol Guffey, Dave Brown, Elaine Neuman, Barb Elerick and Janet Jugenheimer.

Teamed with automatic controls like the time switch, thermostat and electric eye, Reddy has become a first class magician, too. In just the past few years, electric power, automatically controlled, has transformed our daily lives —

YEARS TO COME

Touch reverently those yellowed pages son. They tell the story of a Nation.

They tell of its proud parentage . . . of the brave and hopeful ones who gave it birth, and nursed it through its struggling infancy.

They tell the story of its youth . . . how, guided by the one strong heart and the resolute in purpose it grew, sinew by sinew, until today it stands tall and stately among its neighbors.

They tell, too, how within its giant frame of wood and stone and steel, there beats a pulse powered by the hearts of its people . . . and there lives a spirit inspired by the promise of its children.

And those next few pages, son . . . those pages which as yet are blank . . . why, they're for you to write.

For the story of a Nation is a continued one . . . and how its glory lasts and grows depends upon the authors still to come . . . the future citizens of America.

Your 1955 Blackhawk staff — "Bravest of the brave," indeed, to have tackled the job of creating your yearbook. And also to be highly complimented on a job well done!

Across the years . . .

the shadow of the classroom and campus lengthens and enlarges bringing into sharp focus — the knowledge that has been assimilated, the lessons that have been learned,

the special talents and abilities that have been developed.

The glorious memories of the golden days of fellowship with students and teachers invests each new day with significance and glory. We encourage you to proudly carry forward the ideals and principles which have been your heritage and with them fashion a life full of richness and happiness.

Dear Helen,
 The year has had some fun times that your yearbook at school and at school - and - and - and - just so many things. Remember that algebra class in 9th and then French Honors - means a lot at all - you should know how to eat by now - especially for you! Did you ever find that drive you were making?!!!
 Remember all our problems and heartache - some really funny things turned out pretty "okay" though.
 Can't wait too much longer? Love really going to be next. You and all your friends - family Helen!! Don't let the summer be up at all do you?!!!
 We a real sweet guy and have been by fun at the farm.
 Lots of love to you in year to come - you really deserve it - always stay in touch as you are now.
